(18-20 June 2008)

OIC/35-CFM/2008/FINAL REPORT

1. At the kind invitation of the Government of the Republic of Uganda, the 35th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers (Session of Prosperity and Development), attended by 53 Member States, held in Kampala, Republic of Uganda, from 14 to 16 Jumada Al-Thani 1429H (18-20 June 2008).
2. The Meeting was opened with a recitation of verses from the Holy Qur'an.
3. The Meeting was addressed by the President of the Republic of Uganda, His Excellency Yoweri Kaguta Museveni. In his statement, the President emphasized the need for unity, dialogue and peaceful coexistence. He also noted that the diversities in the Member States if properly harnessed and managed could be source of great strength. He referred to the huge resources and potentials available in the OIC Member States and stressed the importance to enhance intra-OIC cooperation by facilitating trade and investment. In this regard, he urged investors from the Member States to take advantage of abundant natural resources in Uganda and invest in this country. He insisted that what developing countries needed was "trade and not aid".
4. While strongly condemning terrorism, President Museveni distinguished it from legitimate liberation struggle against foreign occupation. He reiterated his government's principled support for the just cause of the Palestinian people and also appealed for the peaceful resolution of conflicts.
5. His Excellency Mr. Makhdoom Shah Mahmood Qureshi, Foreign Minister of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and Chairman of the 34th ICFM delivered a speech in which he highlighted the important activities and developments that took place during the chairmanship of his country. These included the adoption of the new Charter, the revitalization of the OIC, the convening of the Executive Committee on the situation in Palestine, and the various efforts seeking to achieve conflict resolution. He expressed deep concern at the rising wave of Islamophobia and called for concerted collective action as well as engaging western countries in combating this phenomenon.
6. Addressing the opening session, H.E. Prof. Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu, Secretary-General of the Organization of the Islamic Conference, began by thanking H.E. Yoweri Kaguta Museveni, President of the Republic of Uganda for hosting the 35th Session of the CFM and for gracing the opening ceremony of the meeting with his personal presence. He condemned the Israeli illegal practices in the occupied Palestinian territories, and stressed that these practices constitute a flagrant violation to the international law while meeting with total silence by the international community. He also reiterated the OIC support to the Palestinian inalienable national rights. He stated that the reform of the OIC has now taken roots by the adoption of the Charter which has heralded a new dawn in the Organization. Therefore, he appealed to Member States to urgently sign the Charter. He further spoke of the rising profile of the Organization and pointed out that the Organization has emerged as an indispensable international player.

- Elaborating on the need to strengthen intra-OIC cooperation, he identified the Ten Year Program of Action (TYPOA) as a key framework for achieving sustainable economic and social development. He strongly emphasized the commitment of the OIC in addressing poverty alleviation, food security and agricultural development in its Member States, and also for combating the issue of defamation of Islam and the scourge of Islamophobia.
7. The Meeting then unanimously elected H.E. Hon. Sam Kutesa, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Uganda, as Chairman of the 35th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers. It also approved the composition of the Bureau as follows: Islamic Republic of Iran, Syrian Arab Republic and the State of Palestine as Vice-Chairs, and Islamic Republic of Pakistan as Rapporteur.
 8. The Meeting listened to a welcome address by His Excellency Mr. Hon. Sam Kutesa, Foreign Minister of the Republic of Uganda who expressed the honor done to his country to host the 1st CFM after the adoption of the revised Charter. He commended the achievements of the OIC on peace and security issues and urged it to henceforth concentrate on sustainable economic development. In this context, he identified the TYPOA as the blue print to help achieve these objectives.
 9. The representatives of the three geographic groups, the Foreign Minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran for the Asian Group, the Foreign Minister of Chad for the African Group and the Deputy Foreign Minister of Syria for the Arab Group, thanked Uganda for hosting the Meeting and its generous hospitality. They also congratulated the host Foreign Minister for his election as chairman of the 35th CFM and assured him of their cooperation.
 10. The Foreign Minister of Senegal, H.E. Dr. Cheikh Tidiane Gadio conveyed to the meeting a message of H.E. Maitre Abdoulaye WADE, President of the Republic of Senegal and Chairman of the 11th Summit. President Wade remarked that the adoption of the new Charter would enable the OIC to confront the serious challenges facing the Ummah. He called for the effective implementation of the TYPOA particularly the Special Program for the Development of Africa. He also reiterated the need to find solutions to the conflicts in the Middle East and other parts in the Muslim world.
 11. During the opening ceremony, Mrs. Olive Zaitoun Kigongo, President of the National Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Uganda and Chairperson of the OIC Business Forum, held in Kampala on 16-18 June 2008, presented a summary report on the Forum.
