1- Encourages the Member States to support the initiatives aimed at enhancing cooperation between Afghanistan and its neighbors;

2- Emphasizes that terrorism and violent extremism are common threats to the region; and emphasizing the need for joint and concerted efforts and cooperation among the regional countries to address the challenge of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations; encourages Member States of the region to consider the possibility of implementing the United Nations General Assembly Resolution No. A/Res/68/127 entitled “A World against Violence and Violent Extremism” as a basis for their joint efforts in this regard;

3- Requests the OIC Secretary General to continue to represent the OIC, upon invitation, at the initiatives in support of regional cooperation focusing on Afghanistan and report thereon.

Resolution No. 4/44-POL
On
The Situation in Syria

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Cote d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Thul'Qedah 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

1. Emphasizes its principled position on the need to preserve the unity, sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and social harmony of Syria, recalls its resolution No. 4/43-POL on the situation in the Syrian Arab Republic and welcomes the United Nations Security Council Resolutions No. 2336 of 31 December 2016, No. 2254 of 18 December 2015, No. 2258 of 22 December 2015 and No. 2118 of 27 September 2013 as well as UN General Assembly resolutions of 18 December 2014 and 15 May 2013 on the situation in Syria, and the Summit Declaration of the Twenty-Fifth session of the League of the Arab States in Kuwait on 26 March 2014;

2. Recalls the concluding documents of the meetings of the Group of Friends of the Syrian People, in particular the declaration agreed upon at the fourth Ministerial Meeting, held in Marrakech, Morocco, on 12 December 2012, in which the participants recognized the National Coalition for Syrian Revolutionary and Opposition Forces as the legitimate representative of the Syrian people;

3. Recalls the Final Communiqué of the Ministerial Emergency Meeting of the Executive Committee on the Situation in Syria on 22 December 2016 at the initiatives of Kuwait, takes note of the completion of safe and secure evacuations from Aleppo;

4. Welcomes the cooperation and efforts of Turkey, Russia and Iran in consolidating the ceasefire through Astana meetings, in order to ensure the calm for political negotiations;

5. Condemns, in the strongest terms, the attacks by the regime and Foreign militia as well as Al-Qaeda, DAESH and Al-Nusra and any other terrorist organizations against the people of Syria through aerial attacks and the use of heavy weapons including barrel bombs, chemicals and ballistic missiles which resulted in thousands of casualties, also deplores the “starvation until submission” strategy applied by the regime and/or any other party to the conflict throughout the country, depriving hundreds of thousands of people of basic requirements such as food, water and medicine and which constitutes a war crime and a crime against humanity, urgently calls upon stopping violent campaigns against the cultural heritage of Syria and show respect for Islamic values, reiterates the right of the Syrian people to protect themselves in the face of such atrocities and committed to support the people of Syria for the realization of their legitimate aspirations;

6. Appalled by the continued widespread and systematic gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms, including war crimes by the Syrian regime as well as regime-affiliated local and foreign militias, while urges immediate withdrawal of all foreign militias from the Syrian territory;

7. Outraged by the rapidly increasing death toll of at least 400,000 and more than 4.5 million refugees and millions of internally displaced persons and reiterates its appreciation to the neighboring countries notably Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Iraq, Sudan and Turkey and other States for generously hosting Syrian refugees; as well as for the efforts of other sisterly and friendly states in providing shelter and support to Syrian refugees;

8. Reaffirms its support for a political settlement of the conflict based on the Geneva Communiqué which aims at the formation, by mutual consent, of a transitional governing body with full executive powers, including control over security, intelligence and military apparatuses; emphasizes that the current Geneva talks should produce a political transition based on the Geneva Communiqué and UNSC Resolution 2254.

9. Applauds the Higher Negotiation Council for its engagement in the political process to negotiate with the regime for a political transition and strongly underlines the fact that first two rounds of the negotiations did not produce a concrete outcome and urges all concerned parties to support the recently revitalized political process in Geneva, under the auspices of the UN, with a view to implementing a Syrian-led and Syrian owned political transition that would allow building a new Syrian State based on a pluralist, democratic and civilian system where the principles of equality before the law, rule of law and respect for human rights prevail;

10. Welcomes the High Negotiation Council's composition of a comprehensive and broadly representative delegation of the Syrian opposition groups, including all various platforms, the armed groups for the revitalized Geneva process and asks all relevant parties to put adequate pressure on the regime to engage constructively with the HNC for democratic transition in the country; calls on the ISSG and Special Representative De Mistura to focus on the political transition issue during the current round of talks and to get the regime to negotiate in the good faith to achieve this objective.

11. Rejects any claim for legitimacy of the elections held in the midst of a conflict as a result of unilateral decision by Assad who the United Nations considers to have committed war crimes and crimes against humanity, highlights that these elections were held only in regime-controlled areas, and with millions of Syrians disenfranchised, displaced from their homes, or in refugee camps; announces that any so called presidential election shall be entirely inconsistent with the Geneva Communiqué's call for the establishment of a transitional governing body to oversee constitutional reforms leading to free and fair elections in a neutral environment and thus to the political process;

12. Welcomes UNSC Resolutions 2254 and 2258 which once again call for unhindered delivery of humanitarian assistance to Syrian civilians, condemns strongly the failure of the Syrian regime to implement the resolution, calls on the international community to act urgently to deliver humanitarian assistance to civilians and affected areas in Syria, including trans-border operations in order to reach areas in need of urgent humanitarian assistance;

13. Condemns the gross and systematic violations of human rights, international humanitarian law and despicable terrorist crimes perpetrated by terrorist organizations especially by DAESH and Al-Nusra Front in Syria. It affirmed the need to isolate and separate terrorist organization on the field, in accordance with the relevant resolution of the Security Council.

14. Affirms its strong commitment to secure humanitarian assistance for the Syrian people and calls upon all member States and relevant international actors to further enhance their contributions based on burden-sharing principles in view of the growing numbers of Syrian refugees in neighboring countries; lauds the Government of the State of Kuwait for hosting the First, Second, and Third International Pledging Humanitarian Conferences for Syria; it also commended the effective participation of the State of Kuwait in chairing the 4th donor conference held in the British capital, London, on 4th February 2016 in partnership with United Kingdom, the Republic of Germany, Kingdom of Norway, and United Nations in response to the serious humanitarian crisis facing the innocent brotherly Syrians.

15. Strongly condemns the chemical attack of April 4th, 2017, that targeted the city of Khan Sheikun in Idlib Province, which resulted in the death of over 100 people, mostly children, as well as in hundreds of injuries among defenseless innocent citizens.

16. Affirms that the use of chemical weapons constitutes a serious violation of international law, underlines that as decided in UN Security Council Resolutions 2118 and 2235, all parties in Syria shall cooperate fully with the OPCW and the UN Joint Investigation Mechanism Stresses that those responsible for any use of chemical weapons must be held accountable.

17. Strongly condemns the cowardly suicide terrorist attack on 16 April which killed at least 126 people mostly innocent and defenceless women and children on the way out the besieged cities of al-Foua and Kefreya, based on the agreed evacuation and repatriation plan.

18. Requests the Secretary-General to follow up the implementation of this resolution and submit a report thereon to the next Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 8/44-POL
On
The Jammu and Kashmir Dispute

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Reaffirming the principles and objectives of the Charter of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) and the UN Charter regarding the sanctity of the universal realization of the right of peoples to self-determination and recalling the numerous unimplemented UN Security Council resolutions on Jammu and Kashmir dispute which declare that the final disposition of the state of Jammu and Kashmir will be made in accordance with the will of the people to join India or Pakistan expressed through the democratic method of a free and impartial plebiscite conducted under the auspices of the United Nations;

Recalling the Special Declarations on Jammu and Kashmir adopted by the 7th, 10th and 11th Sessions of the Islamic Summit Conference and the Extraordinary Session of the Islamic Summits held in Casablanca in 1994 and Islamabad in 1997 and all previous OIC resolutions on the Jammu and Kashmir dispute and Joint Communiqué as well as the reports of the Ministerial and Summit Meetings of the OIC Contact Group on Jammu and Kashmir and endorsing the recommendations contained therein,

Reaffirming the unwavering support expressed for the Kashmiri people in their just cause in the Joint Communiqué of the 13th OIC Summit and 43rd CFM;

Stressing that Jammu and Kashmir is the core dispute between Pakistan and India and its resolution is indispensable for realization of the dream for peace in South Asia;

Expressing deep concern at atrocious human rights violations being committed by the Indian occupation forces in Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir (IoK) since 1947;

Strongly condemning the intensified Indian barbarities since July 2016, after the extra judicial killing of Burhan Wani, against unarmed and innocent civilians in IoK in which more than 200 people have died, and around 20,000 sustained injuries;

Expressing deep shock at mass blinding of Kashmiri youth, including many women and children, by the pellet gun shots deliberately aimed at eyes;

Noting the widespread uprising by the people of Indian occupied Jammu & Kashmir as a referendum against Indian occupation;

Expressing serious concern at the unprecedented level of illegal detentions and disappearances;

Strongly condemning the continued detentions and house arrests of senior Hurriyat leaders which not only denies them their fundamental freedoms of movement, political activity and speech, but also having a heavy toll on their health;

Expressing deep shock at the discovery of more than 6000 unmarked mass graves in IoK with thousands of victims of fake encounters;

Condemning the wide-spread practice of harassment of Kashmiri students in Indian institutions for showing support to Pakistan;

Rejecting the Indian attempts to malign the legitimate Kashmiri freedom struggle by denigrating it as terrorism and expressing support to the wide-spread indigenous movement in IoK for realization of their right to self-determination;

Paying rich tribute to the valiant people of IoK who, despite worst Indian repression, continue to wage heroic struggle for their inalienable right to self-determination;

Rejecting the Sham and farcical elections held in IoK under the duress of 700,000 Indian occupation forces as a substitute to free and impartial plebiscite held under the UN auspices;

Expressing deep concern at Indian attempts to bring demographic changes in IoK and converting the Muslim majority of the State into minority by settling non-Muslim non-State subjects like West Pakistan Refugees and establishing Sainik colonies;

Denouncing Indian attempts to create fissures among the religious communities of IoK by establishing separate colonies for Pandits who are always welcomed by Kashmiris to return to their ancestral lands;

Taking note of the Memorandum presented by the True Representatives of the people of Jammu and Kashmir;

Acknowledging that the people of Jammu and Kashmir are the principle party to the dispute and should be included in any peace process for resolution of the Jammu & Kashmir dispute;

Strongly condemning the unprovoked firing by the Indian forces on the Line of Control (LoC) and the Working Boundary (WB) with intentional targeting of civilian areas which resulted in the martyrdom of more than 47 civilians and injuries to more than 150 others, including women, children and elderly in the year of 2016;

Further censuring India for deliberately attacking a passenger bus in AJK on 23 November 2016, and subsequently the ambulance evacuating the injured, causing martyrdom of 11 civilians and injuries to 8 others;

Welcoming the visit of the delegation of the Independent Permanent Human Rights Commission (IPHRC) to Pakistan and AJK in March 2017, in the context of its Standing Mechanism for monitoring the human rights violations in the Indian occupied Jammu & Kashmir and acknowledging its report;

Endorsing the concern of the IPHRC report over the gross human rights violations in IoK, and denial by India to the right of self determination to the Kashmiris guaranteed by international rights law and promised by various UN Security Council Resolutions.

Further endorsing the report of IPHRC which states that “through discriminatory laws, Indian security forces have created an atmosphere of impunity and fear which has led to grave human rights abuses against unarmed demonstrators and protestors, with little regard for the principles of proportionality and necessity”.

Condemning the act of awarding the commendation card to Indian Army officer (Major Gogoi) on using an innocent Kashmiri as human shield and approving the observation of the Commission that this act “attests to the Indian Security Forces acquiescence to using such inhuman tactics to create fear and terror among Kashmiri population”.

Denouncing India for denying the IPHRC and other international bodies access to IoK for making an objective assessment of on ground situation of human rights.

Deeply acknowledging the personal support of the former Secretary General Mr. Iyad Amin Madani for the Kashmir cause and his efforts for the peaceful resolution of the Kashmir dispute in accordance with the UN Security Council resolutions;

Welcoming the incoming Secretary General with the hope that he will continue to play his constructive role for resolutions of Kashmir dispute in accordance with the UN Security Council resolutions, and highlighting the plight of hapless Kashmiri people;

- 1- Calls upon India to implement numerous UN Security Council resolutions on Kashmir which declare that the final disposition of the State of Jammu and Kashmir will be made in accordance with the will of the people, to join India or Pakistan, expressed through the democratic method of a free and impartial plebiscite conducted under the auspices of the United Nations.
- 2- Reminds the international community of its obligations to ensure the implementation of UN Security Council resolutions on Kashmir and fulfill the promises made by it with the people of Jammu and Kashmir.
- 3- Calls upon the international community to intensify its efforts in condemning India for continuous human rights violations in IoK;
- 4- Urges India to stop forthwith its brutalities and crimes against humanity in Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir and allow international human rights groups access to IoK for conducting free and impartial inquiry into the horrendous human rights abuses;
- 5- Calls upon India to release all political prisoners forthwith particularly the Hurriyat leaders who are the true representatives of the Kashmiri people;
- 6- Urges India not to change the religious make-up of the State by settling non-State non-Muslim subjects in IoK and respect the internationally recognized disputed status of the State and not bring any material changes there.
- 7- Further urges India not to create religious disharmony in IoK through its communal agenda and politics of religious polarization;

- 8- Calls upon India to conduct free and impartial inquiry into the discovery of 6,000 unmarked mass graves and bring the perpetrators to justice.
- 9- Affirms that any political process/elections held under foreign occupation cannot be a substitute to the exercise of the right of self-determination by people of Jammu and Kashmir as provided in the relevant Security Council Resolutions and reaffirmed in the Millennium Declaration of the UN General Assembly.
- 10- Appeals to the Member States, OIC and other Islamic Institutions, such as the Islamic Solidarity Fund, and philanthropists to mobilize funds and contribute generously toward providing humanitarian assistance to the Kashmiri people.
- 11- Requests the Islamic Development Bank and the Islamic Solidarity fund to provide the necessary financial resources to provide vocational training and higher education to Kashmiri refugees and entrusts the General Secretariat to submit appropriate proposals.
- 12- Urges the Government of India to allow OIC Special Representative on Jammu and Kashmir and the OIC Fact Finding Mission to visit the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir for a neutral and impartial judgment of human rights situation there.
- 13- Recommends that Member States continue to coordinate their positions in international fora and mandates the OIC Contact Group on Jammu and Kashmir to meet regularly;
- 14- Welcomes the important briefings provided by the IPHRC Standing Mechanism on IoK to the OIC Contact Group on Jammu and Kashmir during the Islamic Summit and CFM on the human rights violations in IoK and requests it to continue this useful practice. Also requests the Standing Mechanism of the OIC IPHRC to submit its regular reports on the human rights situation in the IoK to the CFM at its subsequent sessions.
- 15- Decides to consider the Jammu and Kashmir Dispute at the 45th Session of the CFM;
- 16- Requests the Secretary General to follow up the implementation of this resolution and to submit report thereon to the next Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

On

The Aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Proceeding from the principles and objectives of the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Conference,

Gravely concerned over the aggression by the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan which has resulted in the occupation of about 20 percent of the territory of Azerbaijan,

Expressing its profound concern over the continued occupation of a significant part of the territory of Azerbaijan and actions taken with a view of changing unilaterally the physical, demographic, economic, social and cultural character, as well as the institutional structure and status of those territories;

Expressing its grave concern also over the destruction, plunder and appropriation of the public and private property in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan, as well as illegal exploitation of the natural resources in those territories, illicit trade in such resources and products made out of these commodities,

Concerned about the loss, destruction, removal theft, pillage, illicit movement or misappropriation of cultural property in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan and acts of vandalism or damage directed against such property,

Deeply distressed over the plight of more than one million Azerbaijani displaced persons and refugees resulting from the Armenian aggression and over magnitude and severity of these humanitarian problems,

Reaffirming all previous relevant resolutions and, in particular, Resolution No. 10/11-P(IS), adopted by the Eleventh Session of the Islamic Summit Conference held in Dakar, Republic of Senegal, from 6-7 Rabiul Awwal, 1429H (13-14 March 2008),

Urging strict adherence to the Charter of the United Nations and full implementation of the relevant United Nations Security Council resolutions,

Taking note of all diplomatic and other efforts towards the settlement of the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan,

Reaffirming commitment by all Member States to respect the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of the Republic of Azerbaijan,

Noting also the destructive impact of the policy of aggression of the Republic of Armenia on the peace process within the OSCE framework,

Taking note of the Report of the Secretary General,

- 1- Strongly condemns the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan;
- 2- Considers the actions perpetrated by the Armenian forces against the civilian Azerbaijani population and other protected persons during the conflict as crimes against humanity and underscores in this regard that the perpetrators of such crimes must be held accountable;
- 3- Strongly condemns any acts of vandalism, looting and destruction of the archeological, cultural and religious monuments in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan;
- 4- Strongly demands the strict implementation of the United Nations Security Council resolutions 822(1993), 853(1993), 874(1993) and 884(1993), and the immediate, unconditional and complete withdrawal of the Armenian forces from the Nagorno-Karabakh region and other occupied Azerbaijani territories and strongly urges Armenia to respect the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan;
- 5- Express its concern that Armenia has not yet implemented demands contained in the above stated UN Security Council resolutions;
- 6- Calls on the UN Security Council to recognize the existence of aggression against the Republic of Azerbaijan; to take the necessary steps under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations to ensure compliance with its resolutions; to condemn and reverse aggression against the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and decides to take coordinated action to this end within the United Nations;
- 7- Urges all states to refrain from providing any supplies of arms and military equipments to Armenia and not to allow the use of their territories for transit of such supplies, in order to deprive it of any opportunity to escalate the conflict and to continue the occupation of the Azerbaijani territories.
- 8- Calls upon Member States, as well as other members of the international community, to use such effective political and economic measures, as required in order to put an end to Armenian aggression and occupation of the Azerbaijani territories, including, inter alia, through refraining from economic activities in and investments to the Republic of Armenia as well as through limiting overall cooperation with the Republic of Armenia,
- 9- Requests Secretary General to elaborate and submit to the next OIC Council of Foreign Ministers the set of recommendations and proposals for additional joint and individual efforts of the OIC Member States aimed at urging Armenia to respect the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan, put an end to the occupation of the Azerbaijani territories and completely withdraw from the occupied Azerbaijani territories;
- 10- Calls for the earliest political settlement of the Armenia-Azerbaijan conflict on the basis of sovereignty, territorial integrity and inviolability of the internationally recognized borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan, in accordance with the generally accepted norms and principles of international law, the relevant UN Security Council resolutions and the OSCE documents and decisions;

- 11- Decides to instruct the Permanent Representatives of Member States to the United Nations in New York, while voting in the UN General Assembly, to give full support to the issue of territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan;
- 12- Urges Armenia and all Member States of the OSCE Minsk Group to engage constructively in the ongoing OSCE peace process on the basis of the relevant resolutions of the UN Security Council and the relevant OSCE decisions and documents;
- 13- Expresses its full support for the three principles of the settlement of the armed conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan contained in the statement of the OSCE Chairman-in-Office at the 1996 Lisbon OSCE Summit, namely the territorial integrity of the Republic of Armenia and the Republic of Azerbaijan, highest degree of self-rule of the Nagorno-Karabakh region within Azerbaijan and guaranteed security for this region and its whole population;
- 14- Stresses that fait accompli may not serve as a basis for a settlement, and that neither the current situation within the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan, nor any actions, including arranging voting process, undertaken there to consolidate the status quo, may be recognized as legally valid;
- 15- Urges all States not to recognize as lawful the situation resulting from the occupation of the territories of Azerbaijan, nor render aid or assistance in maintaining that situation emerged as a result of serious breaches of international law and, to this end, encourages all States to cooperate with a view to ending aggression against Azerbaijan and occupation of its territories;
- 16- Demands to cease and reverse immediately the transfer of ethnic Armenian settlers into the occupied territories of Azerbaijan and all other actions taken with a view of changing unilaterally the physical, demographic, economic, social and cultural character, as well as the institutional structure and status of those territories, which constitute a blatant violation of international humanitarian and human rights law and has a detrimental impact on the process of peaceful settlement of the conflict, and agrees to render its full support to the efforts and initiatives of Azerbaijan, aimed at preventing and invalidating such actions, including within the General Assembly of the United Nations, inter alia, through their respective Permanent Missions to the United Nations in New York;
- 17- Requests Member States to take decisive measures to prevent any activities by their natural or legal persons that affect the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Azerbaijan, including the engagement in or facilitation of any activity in the Nagorno-Karabakh region and other occupied territories of Azerbaijan;
- 18- Calls upon Member States to take effective measures to prevent imports/exports, sale and realization of any product in their territories produced in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan, including its Nagorno-Karabakh region, or the products which were produced through utilization of resources shipped from the occupied territories of

Azerbaijan, as well as not to allow any sort of advertising and marketing of products aimed at propagating the separatist regime established by Armenia in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan and also to prohibit financial services, such as provision of financing, financial assistance, insurance and reinsurance services, related to the importation/exportation of goods subject to this prohibition;

- 19- Also calls upon Member States to take effective measures to prevent tourism companies; travel agencies, tour operators and their umbrella organizations, operating on their territories, from organizing tourist visits to and the promotion of tourism in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan, propagating illegal separatist regime at the international tourism fairs and other tourism events, in contravention of the fundamental aims of tourism set forth in the Statute of the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) and the principles of the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism approved by UNWTO and endorsed by the United Nations General Assembly;

Referring to the UN Security Council Resolutions 1160 (1998), 1999 (1998), 1203 (1998), 1239 (1999) and 1244 (1999), and the relevant statements of its President and the Secretary-General of the United Nations,

Recalling the International Court of Justice Advisory Opinion of 22 July 2010 on the "Accordance with international law of the unilateral declaration of independence in respect of Kosovo",

Recalling also the UN General Assembly Resolution 64/298,

Recalling further the Resolution No. 16/31 adopted at the thirty-first Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers held in Istanbul on 14-16 June 2004, the Resolution No. 36/34 of the 34th Session of the CFM, Islamabad, 15-17 May 2007, the Resolution No. 14/36 of the 36th Session of the CFM, Damascus, 23-25 May 2009, the Resolution No.17/38 of 38th Session of the CFM, Astana, 27-30 June 2011, the Final Communiqué of the 11th OIC Summit, Dakar, 13-14 March 2008, the Declaration of the OIC Ministerial Meeting in Kampala in June 2008 and in New York in September 2008; the Final Communiqué of the Coordination Meeting of the Foreign Ministers of the OIC Member States in New York in September 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013, the Final Communiqué of the Cairo Summit 2013, Resolution No. 16/40 POL of the 40th Session of CFM, Conakry, Republic of Guinea, from 9-11 December 2013, the Resolution No. 18/41-POL of the 41st CFM, Jeddah, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia from 18-19 June 2014, the Resolution No. 18/42-POL of the 42nd Session of the CFM, Kuwait, State of Kuwait from 27-28 May 2015, and the Final Communiqué of the Istanbul (Republic of Turkey) Summit, 14-15 April 2016, the Resolution No. 18/43-POL of the 43rd Session of the CFM, Tashkent, Republic of Uzbekistan from 18-19 October 2016.

Noting the Declaration of Independence by the Assembly of Kosovo of 17 February 2008, Recording and appreciating the Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh for according its recognition of the Republic of Kosovo on 27 February 2017 in a letter by the Prime Minister of Bangladesh H. E. Sheikh Hasina;

Considering the fact, that Kosovo has been recognized by 114 states, including 38 OIC Member States,

Reaffirming the continued interest of the OIC toward the people of Kosovo and the peace and stability in the whole Balkan region,

- 1- Takes note of the progress made towards the strengthening of democracy in Kosovo and the institutional work at all relevant levels, serving peace and stability in the country and the entire region;
- 2- Acknowledges the Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice on Kosovo's Declaration of Independence, delivered on 22 July 2010, in which the Court rendered that Kosovo's Declaration of Independence violated neither general international law, Security Council Resolution 1244 (1999), nor the Provisional Constitutional Framework of Kosovo, adopted by UNMIK;
- 3- Welcomes the commitment by all stakeholders, (local and international authorities), to further strengthening democracy, rule of law and the institutional work at all relevant levels throughout the entire territory of Kosovo, serving peace and stability in the country and the entire region throughout Kosovo;
- 4- Also welcomes the continuing efforts of the European Union to advance the European perspective of Kosovo and the whole of the Western Balkans, making thus a decisive contribution to the stability and prosperity of the region;
- 5- Supports the process of dialogue between Kosovo and Serbia with the European Union facilitation on technical issues as requested by the UNGA resolution 64/298 and welcomes the historic agreement reached on 19 April 2013 in Brussels between Kosovo and Serbia with the facilitation of the European Union, which paved the way for the normalization of their relations, and calls upon the parties to fully implement the agreement;
- 6- Calls upon the Member States of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation to consider recognizing of Kosovo based on their free and sovereign rights as well as on their national practice;
- 7- Welcomes the cooperation of Kosovo with the OIC economic and financial institutions, and calls on the international community, including the willing of the OIC Member States, to continue contributing to the fostering of the Kosovo's economy;
- 8- Requests the Secretary-General, to submit to the 45th Session of the OIC Council of Foreign Ministers a follow-up report on the progress of the present Resolution.

Resolution No.19/44-POL
On
The Situation in Cyprus

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling its resolution No.2/31-P on the situation in Cyprus adopted at the 31st Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers, held in Istanbul on 14-16 June 2004;

Reiterating all the resolutions and the Final Communiqués adopted by the OIC on the situation in Cyprus, including the latest Final Communiqué of the 13th Session of the Islamic Summit Conference held in Istanbul, Republic of Turkey, on 14-15 April 2016, and Resolution No. 19/43-POL adopted by the 43rd Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers held in Tashkent, Republic of Uzbekistan, on 18-19 October 2016;

Reaffirming all previous support resolutions of the Islamic Conferences on the question of Cyprus which express firm support for the rightful cause of the Muslim Turkish Cypriots who constitute an integral part of the Islamic world;

Reiterating its continued support for the efforts of the UN Secretary General under his Mission of Good Office towards a comprehensive settlement;

Recalling its support for the negotiations for a comprehensive settlement of the Cyprus issue, under the auspices of the UN Secretary-General's Good Offices Mission and the willingness shown by the Turkish Cypriot side and Turkey for a just and lasting settlement;

Supporting the UN comprehensive settlement negotiations in Cyprus which ~~was~~ resumed on 11 February 2014 based on the Joint Declaration adopted by the two leaders which envisaged a federation composed of two constituent states of equal status;

Expressing its solidarity with the constituent Turkish Cypriot State and its appreciation for their constructive efforts to attain a just and mutually acceptable settlement;

Underlining that an early comprehensive settlement to the Cyprus problem that has been on the agenda of the UN Security Council for 53 years can only be reached if the Turkish constructiveness in negotiations is properly reciprocated and that a negotiated and mutually agreed political solution can be found, based on the inherent constitutive power of the two peoples, their political equality and co-ownership of the Island;

Noting the report of the Secretary General on the situation in Cyprus contained in document (OIC/CFM-43/2016/SG-REPORT);

- 1. Reaffirms the full equality of the two parties in Cyprus as the principle enabling them to live side-by-side in security, peace and harmony without one having the ability to govern, exploit, oppress or threaten the other and emphasizes in this context that public statements by one side describing the other side as a "minority" run counter to this firmly established principle of political equality;

2. Reiterates its support to the efforts of the Turkish Cypriot Leader and the Greek Cypriot Leader to reach a negotiated settlement as it was agreed on the Joint Declaration of February 11, 2014 for the resumption of UN comprehensive negotiations in Cyprus;
3. Calls upon the international community to encourage the Greek Cypriot side to work constructively for an early comprehensive solution to the Cyprus issue,
4. Repeats its call to the international community to take, without further delay, concrete steps to end the isolation of the Muslim Turkish Cypriots in line with the call made by the UN Secretary-General in this Report of 28 May 2004 and the assessments made by the UN Secretary-General's following reports as well as the previous OIC resolutions;
5. Calls upon the Member States to strengthen effective solidarity with the Muslim Turkish Cypriots, closely associating with them, and with a view to helping them materially and politically to overcome the inhuman isolation which has been imposed upon them, to increase and expand their relations in all fields;
6. Invites the Member States in this framework:
 - to exchange business delegations with the Muslim Turkish Cypriots with a view to exploring the opportunities of economic cooperation, investment in areas such as direct transport, tourism, information;
 - to develop cultural relations and sports contacts with the Muslim Turkish Cypriots;
 - to encourage cooperation with the Turkish Cypriot universities, including the exchange of students and academicians;
7. Strongly encourages Member States to exchange high-level visits with the Muslim Turkish Cypriots;
8. Reaffirms its previous decisions to support, until the Cyprus problem is solved, the rightful claim of the Muslim Turkish Cypriots, for the right to be heard in all international fora where the Cyprus problem comes up for discussion, on the basis of equality of the two parties in Cyprus;
9. Requests the Secretary General to secure the continuation of the necessary contacts with the Islamic Development Bank with a view to seek ways and means of the latter's assistance for the development projects of the Muslim Turkish Cypriots;
10. Acknowledges the desire of the Muslim Turkish Cypriots to travel freely to OIC Member Countries;
11. Urges the Member States to inform the General Secretariat of the actions taken regarding the implementation of all previous resolutions,

12. Requests the Secretary General to take all necessary measures for the implementation of this resolution, make further recommendations as appropriate and to report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 20/44-POL
On
The Situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling all the previous resolutions and declarations by the OIC on the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina,

Reaffirming the firm support of the OIC Member States to preserve the territorial integrity, sovereignty, equality of the two entities and the three constituent peoples and others, within internationally recognized borders of Bosnia and Herzegovina,

Underlining the need for a comprehensive reform process with a view to strengthening the European and Euro-Atlantic orientation of Bosnia and Herzegovina,

1. Calls for the continued interest of the OIC and its Member States in the stability and prosperity of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the face of the critical period it is passing through;
2. Welcomes the efforts of the OIC Contact Group on Bosnia and Herzegovina, which conducted its last meeting in September 2012 in New York;
3. Acknowledges the significance of the continued contributions of the OIC members of the Peace Implementation Council to the budget of the Office of the High Representative;
4. Encourages the regional efforts towards confidence building among stakeholders in BiH and the neighbouring countries;
5. While welcoming the creation of a broad based, multi-ethnic state level Government 16 months after the general elections held in October 2010, and the adoption of crucial laws, including State Aid Law and Public Census Law, thereafter, expresses concern about the ongoing political crisis in the country;
6. Welcomes the results of the local elections taken place on 7th of October 2012, which were conducted in line with the international standards and in an orderly manner;
7. Expresses concern about the increasing divisive rhetoric and calls upon all local, regional and international stakeholders to decisively and categorically discourage such rhetoric and actions that could harm the territorial integrity of BiH;
8. Encourages the European and Euro-Atlantic orientation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and reminds that the main responsibility regarding the reform process rests with the people and the political leaders of Bosnia and Herzegovina;
9. Calls upon all the political leaders in Bosnia and Herzegovina to join their forces for the common future of the country and thus focus on the reform process;

10. Calls upon the Islamic World to continue to commemorate the tragic events that occurred in Srebrenica 17 years ago on 11 July as the Day of Mourning in line with the Resolution adopted by the 38th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers held in Astana, Republic of Kazakhstan, on 30th June 2011;
11. Emphasizes the importance of the economic development in consolidating peace and stability in Bosnia and Herzegovina and invites the Islamic Development Bank to develop result-oriented projects in cooperation with the relevant development agencies of the Member States for ameliorating the economic and social conditions of the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina;
12. Calls upon the OIC Member States and the OIC financial institutions to increase their contributions to the OIC Trust Fund for the Return of the Displaced Persons in BiH;
13. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the implementation of the present Resolution and report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 21/44-POL
On
The Combating Terrorism in Sahel-Saharan Region Countries

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling the principles and objectives of the United Nations Charter aimed at maintaining Peace & Security, and to that end take effective collective measures;

Reaffirming the principles and objectives of the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation(OIC) calling upon Member States to cooperate in combating terrorism in its forms and manifestations, organized crime, illicit drug trafficking, corruption, money laundering and human trafficking;

Referring to the OIC Ten-Year Programme of Action adopted by the Third Extraordinary Islamic Summit Conference which was held in Makkah Al Mukarramah on 7-8 December 2005, reaffirming condemnation of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations and rejecting any justification or excuse for terrorism;

Referring to the OIC Convention on Combating Terrorism adopted by the 26th Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (session of Peace and Partnership for Development) which was held in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, from 28 June to 1 July 1999;

Guided by the objectives and principles of the United Nations and African Union on preventing and combating terrorism and organized crime;

Recalling resolution 2295 (2016) of the UN Security Council (New York, 29 June 2016) on the renewal of the mandate of MINUSMA;

Recalling also Resolution 65/50 of the United Nations General Assembly on Assistance to States for Curbing the Illicit Traffic in Small Arms and Light Weapons and Collecting Them, adopted in plenary session on 8 December 2010;

Concerned about the danger of terrorist groups for Member States' stability, security and integrity;

Considering the elaboration of the UN Integrated Strategy for the Sahel and the establishment of the Ministerial Coordination Platform for Sahel Strategies and the G5 Sahel strategy;

1. Condemns the activity of terrorist groups in the Sahel-Saharan region and expresses deep concern that over drug trafficking, human trafficking and hostage taking leading to payment of ransoms as the major source of financing of the activities of terrorist groups.
2. Encourages OIC Member States, in the framework of this fight, to support countries of the Sahel region, particularly to the Sahel G5, through, inter alia, reinforcing the capacity of the defense and security forces, and requests the UN to provide the MINUSMA with a robust mandate that enables it to face terrorist threats and support Sahel G5 countries in the establishment of rapid-response force.

3. Commends the results achieved in the implementation of the UN Integrated Strategy for the Sahel, namely the establishment and implementation of the Ministerial Coordination Platform for Sahel Strategies and the G5 Sahel strategy; and calls upon Member States to pursue their ongoing efforts for the implementation of the programmes and achievement of the objectives of these coordination and development mechanisms.
4. Reiterates its supports to the practical and operational steps taken by the countries of the Sahel region to strengthen coordination of their efforts to combat terrorism and organized crime, under the Joint Operation Military Staff Committee (CEMOC) and the Fusion and Liaison Committee (UFL) in Algeria.
5. Stresses the close link between the phenomenon of terrorism and illegal activities such as drugs trade, arms trade and human trafficking as the latter constitutes the main sources of finance for terrorist movements, and underlines the need to strengthen the necessary measures and mechanisms in this regard.
6. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the implementation of this resolution and to report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 22/44-POL
On
The Strengthening of the Security of Non-Nuclear Weapon States Against the use or Threat of use of Nuclear Weapons

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Guided by the objectives of the Charter of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation which call for the consolidation of international peace and security on the basis of justice; and reaffirming its commitment to the purposes of the United Nations Charter in safeguarding international peace and security,

Deeply concerned over the existence of significant nuclear arsenals in the world which increase the possibility of the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Taking into consideration the imperative to take effective international measures to ensure the security of Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or of threat of use of nuclear weapons, whatever their origin,

Recalling the resolutions and decisions adopted by the UN General Assembly at its 10th Special Session, held from 23 May to 30 June 1978 devoted to disarmament, especially its paragraphs 32 and 59 related to the effective arrangements to assure the non-nuclear weapon states against the use or the threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Recalling the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice of 8 July 1996 on the legality of the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons in which it, inter alia, expresses that use or threat of use of nuclear weapons would generally be contrary to the Rules of international law applicable in armed conflict and in particular the principles and rules of Humanitarian Law,

Underlining once again the unanimous conclusion of the International Court of Justice that there exists an obligation to pursue in good faith and bring to conclusion negotiations leading to nuclear disarmament in all its aspects under strict and effective international control,

Recognizing that effective measures through multilaterally negotiated legally binding instrument to protect Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons positively contributes to the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and strengthen international peace and security,

Expressing its grave concern over the acquisition of nuclear weapons capability by Israel, which poses a serious and continuing threat to international and regional peace and security,

Deeply concerned over Israel's arsenal of nuclear weapons and its threats as well as hostile policies and practices aimed at destroying the peaceful and defense capabilities of OIC Member States,

Also deeply concerned about the Israeli threats against peaceful nuclear installations of the OIC Member States, and also condemning the Israeli threats against the Islamic Republic of Iran;

Deeply convinced that the most effective assurance for Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons is the total elimination of all nuclear weapons,

Recalling the declaration and commitment therein made by Nuclear-Weapon States to provide legally binding security assurances to Non-Nuclear Weapon States in accordance with their obligations under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty and other instruments,

Noting that Nuclear Weapon States have failed to provide credible assurances to Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Recalling all relevant resolutions adopted by the Islamic Conferences including Resolution 39/10-P (IS) adopted by the Tenth Islamic Summit Conference and Resolution 22/41-POL of the Thirty-ninth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers,

Recalling also the resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly as well as relevant documents of the Non-Aligned Movement on the need for assurances by nuclear weapon state to Non-Nuclear Weapon States to the effect that they shall not resort to the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons against them,

Recalling the resolutions of the UN General Assembly related to the subject, in particular Resolution 71/30,

Noting the unanimous adoption of Resolution No. 984 by the UN Security Council as well as the Declaration issued by the Nuclear Weapon States in April 1995 on positive and negative security assurances for the Non-Nuclear Weapon States which are still inadequate to assure the Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Noting also the adoption of the Comprehensive Test ban Treaty by the Resumed session of the UN General Assembly on 10 September 1996,

Expressing deep concern over the threat of use of nuclear weapons in general and against the OIC Member States in particular,

Also expressing deep concern over the Nuclear Posture Review by a certain nuclear weapon state in which some Member States are threatened to be targets of special types of nuclear weapons,

Expressing concern also over the failure of the 9th Review Conference on the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons despite the relentless efforts exerted by the Arab Group and the outstanding endeavors of the Algerian Presidency of the Conference to come up with a consensual document;

- 1. Calls upon all States, including those Members of the Conference on Disarmament, particularly the Nuclear Weapon States, to work urgently towards a multilaterally negotiated legally binding instrument to assure unconditionally Non-Nuclear Weapon

States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons and to explore all additional means to provide effective assurances to Non-Nuclear Weapon States in the global or regional context. Pending the conclusion of such legally binding instrument, the Nuclear Weapon States should fully observe their existing obligations, and in this context calls upon the NWS to denounce unequivocally the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons against non-nuclear weapon states pending total elimination of such weapons;

2. Recommends that the Members of the OIC make every effort at all international fora with a view to promoting the above-mentioned objectives aimed at strengthening the security of Non-Nuclear Weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;
3. Urges the Conference on Disarmament to give utmost priority among all issues on its agenda, to the early commencement of negotiations on nuclear disarmament,
4. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the developments in this respect and submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 23/44-POL
On
Evolving a new Global Consensus on Disarmament and Non-Proliferation

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling Resolution 23/41-POL adopted at the Forty-First Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers,

Recalling the Final Communiqué of the Meeting of the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Member States of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation in Conakry,

Concerned over the continuing lack of progress on disarmament and non-proliferation and its negative impact on international and regional peace and security,

Recognizing that arms control, disarmament and non-proliferation are essential for the maintenance of international and regional peace and security,

Underscoring that strategic and political expediency, as well as commercial competition should not be allowed to compromise the mutually shared objectives of nonproliferation and disarmament,

Reaffirming the central role and primary responsibility of the United Nations in the field of disarmament,

Recalling the Final Document of the 10th Special Session of the General Assembly, adopted by consensus at the First Special Session devoted to Disarmament,

Welcoming the adoption of the UN General Assembly resolution 67/518 calling for the convening of the Fourth special Session of the General Assembly devoted to Disarmament (SSOD-IV),

- 1- Underscores the need to evolve a new and balanced consensus in the area of disarmament, arms control, non-proliferation and related security matters as a means to promote international and regional peace and security;
- 2- Stresses the need for non-discriminatory criteria for access to peaceful nuclear technologies to facilitate socio-economic development, particularly in developing countries;
- 3- Calls upon members of multilateral export Control regimes to adopt nondiscriminatory policies for access to nuclear and other dual-use technologies for peaceful uses and notes with deep concern the practice of grant of country-specific exemptions which is undermining the non-proliferation regime and peace and stability at the regional and global levels;

- 4- Expresses support for equal treatment of applications for the Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG) membership of non-NPT states, including Pakistan, on the basis of objective, transparent and non-discriminatory criteria;
- 5- Strongly supports the convening of the Fourth Special Session of the General Assembly as soon as possible with a view to evolving a new and balanced consensus, taking into account the existing and emerging challenges in the area of disarmament and non-proliferation;
- 6- Taking note of the fact that Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) supported the convening of the Fourth Special Session of the General Assembly which would offer the opportunity to review, from a perspective more in tune with the current international situation, the most critical aspects of the disarmament process and to mobilize the international community and public opinion in favour of the elimination of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction and of the control and reduction of conventional weapons based on the principle of undiminished security of the parties with a view to promoting or enhancing stability at a lower military level, taking into account the need of all States to protect their security.
- 7- Reiterating its conviction that the Fourth Special Session of the General Assembly can set the future course of action in the fields of disarmament, arms control, non-proliferation and related international security matters.
- 8- Emphasizing the importance of multilateralism in the process of disarmament, arms control, non-proliferation and related international security matters.
- 9- Requests all OIC Member States to actively participate in the preparatory process for this Special Session;
- 10- Encourages in this context the efforts in order to reach an agreement on a balanced and comprehensive Programme of Work for the Conference on Disarmament and invites the Member States of the Conference on Disarmament to consider positively all the proposals made in the CD to this end, including to facilitate an early commencement of negotiations on nuclear disarmament;
- 11- Congratulates Algeria on its Chairmanship of the 9th Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Review Conference.
- 12- Requests the Secretary General to submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 24/44-POL
On

Consideration of the Relevant Initiatives and Proposals in the Field of Conventional Arms

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Guided by the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations and the principles of international law relating to the maintenance of international peace and security,

Reaffirming the principle of equal rights and the inalienable right to self-determination of all peoples, as enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Cooperation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing the right of all States to manufacture, import, export, transfer and retain conventional arms for self-defense and security needs, and in order to participate in peace support operation,

Reiterating the need for balanced reduction of armed forces and of conventional armaments based on the principle of undiminished security of all States, taking into account the need of all States to protect their security,

Taking note of the existing and new initiatives and proposals in the field of conventional arms including international arrangements for promoting transparency and confidence and security-building measures in the field of conventional arms, those arising from the United Nations Programme of Action to combat, prevent and eradicate the illicit trade in SALW in all its aspects,

Taking note of the adoption by the UN General Assembly on 2 April 2013 of the Arms Trade Treaty,

Reaffirming the principle of consensus in multilateral treaty negotiations and the principle of equal and undiminished security for all states,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 71/41 on Conventional Arms Control at the Regional and Sub-regional levels,

Recalling Resolution 24/41-POL adopted at the Forty-First Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers,

- 1- Stresses that initiatives and proposals in the field of conventional arms, including arms transfers should be addressed in conjunction with the question of maintaining international peace and security, reducing regional and international tensions, preventing and resolving conflicts and disputes, building and enhancing confidence, and promoting disarmament as well as social and economic development;

- 2- Underscores that any international initiative on conventional arms trade should not impinge upon the right of each state to security and the inalienable right to self-determination and independence of people under colonial or foreign domination and obligations of States to respect that right, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States;
- 3- Notes with deep concern policies of arms transfers of certain major arms producers and exporters that sidestep considerations for maintaining regional military balance and strategic stability in volatile regions for furthering their political agendas and commercial interests;
- 4- Requests the Secretary General to submit a report of the Group of Experts to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 25/44-POL
On
Regional Military Balance

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling the purposes and principles of the UN Charter, bearing in mind the need for redressing the asymmetries in the levels of security arising from military imbalances at regional and sub-regional levels,

Recalling the Final Communiqué of the 11th Session of the Islamic Summit held in Dakar and all relevant OIC resolutions, in particular Resolution No.31/10-P(IS) adopted by the Tenth Session of the Islamic Summit Conference as well as Resolution 25/41-POL of the Forty-First Council of Foreign Ministers on this subject,

- 1- Recognizes the need for enhancing regional security and stability through the settlement of outstanding disputes and the establishment of equitable and verifiable balance of armaments at the lowest levels;
 - 2- Calls upon the international community and states concerned to adopt measures which would ease global and regional tensions and result in a just and lasting resolution of outstanding conflicts and disputes thus facilitate meaningful appropriate disarmament and arms control measures;
 - 3- Requests the Secretary General to follow-up the developments in this respect and submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 26/44-POL
On
The Regional Arms Control and Disarmament

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Believing that the efforts of the international community to move towards the ideal of general and complete disarmament are guided by the desire for genuine peace and security, the elimination of the danger of war and the release of economic, intellectual and other resources for peaceful pursuits,

Affirming the commitment of all Member States to the purposes and principles enshrined in the Charters of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation and the United Nations in the conduct of their international relations,

Noting that unbridled regional arms race and arms buildup impedes socio-economic development and efforts towards confidence building,

Noting also that the essential guidelines for progress towards General and Complete disarmament were adopted at the 10th Special Session of the UN General Assembly vide its Resolution No.S-10/2,

Recalling Resolution 71/40 adopted by 71st Session of the UN General Assembly,

Noting with concern the lack of progress in the field of disarmament, in particular nuclear disarmament,

Recognizing the importance of confidence building measures for regional and international peace and security,

Recalling all the relevant OIC resolutions, especially resolution No.30/10-P (IS) of the Tenth Session of the Islamic Summit Conference as well as Resolution 26/41-POL of the Forty-First Council of Foreign Ministers on the subject,

Convinced that endeavours of the Member States to promote regional disarmament, taking into account the specific characteristics of each region and in accordance with the principle of undiminished security at the lowest level of armaments, would enhance the security of all States, in particular smaller States and would thus contribute to international peace and security by reducing the risk of regional conflict,

Welcoming the entry into force, on 21 of March 2009, of the Treaty on a Nuclear Weapon-Free Zone in Central Asia, which was initiated by the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov on 28 September 1993 at the 48th session of the UN General Assembly and which became the first such zone made up entirely of OIC Member States, as well as the initiative of the Republic of Kazakhstan to elaborate further the issue of an international legal status of the nuclear-weapons-free zones, including security assurances and appropriate preferential status of States Parties to such zones; hoping that the Protocol to the Treaty on negative security assurances, signed by five members of the UN Security Council on 6 May 2014, will come into force in the very near future

Also welcoming the entry into force since 2010 of the Treaty of Pelindaba on Nuclear Weapon Free Zone in Africa,

Welcoming the signing, on 7 May 2014, by China, France, the Russian Federation, United Kingdom and the United States, the five major Nuclear Weapon States of the Protocol to the Treaty on a Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone in Central Asia,

- 1- Stresses that sustained efforts are needed, within the framework of the Conference on Disarmament and under the auspices of the United Nations, to make progress on the entire range of disarmament issues, in particular nuclear disarmament, as the highest priority;
- 2- Affirms that global and regional approaches to disarmament complement each other and should therefore be pursued simultaneously to promote regional and international peace and security;
- 3- Encourages the conclusion of multilaterally negotiated equitable and nondiscriminatory agreements for global nuclear disarmament, non-proliferation and confidence-building at the global, regional and sub-regional levels;
- 4- Welcomes the initiatives towards disarmament, nuclear non-proliferation and security undertaken by some Member States at the regional and sub-regional levels;
- 5- Supports and encourages efforts aimed at promoting confidence-building measures at regional and sub-regional levels in order to ease regional tensions and to further disarmament and non-proliferation measures at regional and sub-regional levels, taking into account the relevant characteristics of each region;
- 6- Considers that regional agreements on limitations for arms production and purchases and military expenditure can contribute to fostering confidence and making resources available for development, taking into consideration the circumstances of each region;
- 7- Calls upon the countries that have not yet ratified the Protocol to the Treaty on a Nuclear Weapon-Free Zone in Central Asia, to finalize the ratification process at earliest time.
- 8- Requests the Secretary General to follow developments in this respect and submit a report thereon to the next Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 27/44-POL
On
Establishment of a Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone in the Middle East

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling the principles and purposes enshrined in the Charters of the United Nations and Organization of the Islamic Conference, and the principles of international law related to the maintenance of international peace and security,

Convinced that the existence and proliferation of nuclear weapons by Israel in the Middle East constitutes a threat to NNWS and poses grave danger to International peace and security,

Recalling UN General Assembly resolutions, the most recent of which is resolution 65/42 of 11/01/2011 and resolutions adopted by Islamic Conferences and other International fora in this regard, in particular the resolution adopted by the 1995 NPT Review and Extension Conference, as well as the final documents of the 2000 and 2010 NPT review conferences,

Expressing deep concern about the negative international policies and tendencies regarding the non- proliferation of nuclear weapons and nuclear disarmament, that the possession of nuclear weapons by Israel poses grave dangers to the security and stability of the Middle East region,

Taking into consideration the urgent need to implement the comprehensive safeguards regime of the IAEA on all the nuclear facilities in the Middle East region,

Noting with deep concern that Israel is the only country in the Middle East that is yet to accede to the nuclear Non-proliferation Treaty (NPT),

Expressing deep regret at the failure to convene the Conference on the Establishment of a Middle East zone free of nuclear weapons and all other weapons of mass destruction which was scheduled to convene in 2012,

Appreciating the constructive and positive reactions from OIC Member States towards the Conference, including the announcement of their willingness to participate in 2012 Conference,

Deploring that Israel continues to undermine the convening of the Conference by not declaring its intention to participate in it,

- 1- Calls on Israel to accede to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT), without further delay and unconditionally, and to place all its nuclear facilities under the comprehensive safeguards regime of the IAEA; in accordance with the UN Security Council Resolution 487(1981), reaffirms the importance of establishing a nuclear weapons free zone in the Middle East as soon as possible to preserve peace and security in the region; and reaffirms its support for the Arab Initiative submitted to the Security Council in 2003 in this regard;

- 2- Expresses deep concern over the threat of the proliferation of nuclear weapons to the security and stability of the Middle East region.
- 3- Expresses deep concern over the Israeli nuclear capabilities and threats; appeals to the Islamic Group in Vienna to work towards the re-inclusion in the agenda of the 55th General Conference of the IAEA an agenda item entitled: "Israeli Nuclear Capabilities and Threats" and the adoption of a resolution in this regard;
- 4- Reaffirms the inalienable right of all states in full compliance with obligations emanating from the NPT to develop research, production and use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes without discrimination in accordance with the NPT provisions and the statute of the IAEA; and, in this regard encourages cooperation among the OIC Member States on the peaceful uses of nuclear energy;
- 5- Calls upon the Facilitator Ambassador Jaakko Laajava of Finland and his team to intensify their efforts towards the convening of the International Conference at the earliest convenience;
- 6- Calls upon all Member States, including members of the Conference on Disarmament, particularly the Nuclear Weapons States (NWS), to work urgently towards a multilaterally negotiated legally binding instrument to assure unconditionally Non-Nuclear Weapons States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;
- 7- Calls upon OIC Member States to coordinate their efforts in preparation for related international conference, and to hold meetings in order to unify their position;
- 8- Encourages the work of Islamic groups especially in the UN Headquarters in New York, Geneva and Vienna, to coordinate with other regional groups including NAM and African Union, to seek support for its members' position;
- 9- Decides to mobilize efforts of OIC Member States with the aim of establishing Nuclear Weapon Free Zone in the Middle East and supports the efforts of the States of the region towards this aim the latest of which is the initiative of the Arab Republic of Egypt made during the 68th UNGA Session on 28 September 2013 in New York given its clear executive steps in support of regional and international efforts aimed at creating a region free of nuclear weapons and all weapons of mass destruction in the Middle East ;
- 10- Urges the United States, the United Kingdom and the Russian Federation as the cosponsors of the 1995 Middle East Resolution and the UN Secretary General to expedite the implementation of their responsibilities assigned to them by the 2010 NPT Review Conference and, in this context, to convene the Conference on the Establishment of a Middle East zone free of nuclear weapons and all other weapons of mass destruction without any further delay in order to avoid any negative repercussions on the credibility of the NPT and its 2015 review process;
- 11- Decides to include in the agenda of the Ministerial conferences an item entitled "Israeli Nuclear Capabilities and Threats;"

12- Requests the Secretary General to follow up the implementation of the present resolution and to report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 28/44-POL
On
Condemnation of Zionist Regime for Possession of Nuclear Capability to Develop Nuclear Arsenals

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Reaffirming the principled positions of the OIC on nuclear disarmament and nonproliferation reflected in various OIC Resolutions and Declarations the latest of which was Resolution No. 34/37-POL of the 37th CFM,

Reaffirming further the relevant provisions of the Final Document of Sixteen Summit of Non-Aligned Movement, held in Tehran on 26-31 August 2012,

Gravely concerned by the statement made by the Prime Minister of Israel, in which he acknowledged publicly the possession of nuclear weapons by its regime,

1. Condemns in the strongest terms the possession of nuclear capability by Israeli regime to develop nuclear arsenals;
2. Stresses the need for the international community to take urgent and practical steps in the relevant international fora, in particular the 2012 Conference on Establishment of a Nuclear Weapons Free Zone in the Middle East, to compel Israel to abandon its clandestine nuclear weapons program and other weapons of mass destructions;
3. Expresses its grave concern over the clandestine nuclear activities and acquisition of nuclear weapon capability by Israel, which poses a serious and continuing threat to the international peace and security as well as the security of neighboring and other States, and condemns it for continuing to develop and stockpile nuclear arsenals;
4. Urges the international community to exert pressure on Israel to renounce possession of its nuclear weapons, to accede to the NPT without further delay and any conditions, to place promptly all its unsafeguarded nuclear facilities under IAEA full-scope safeguards;
5. Reiterates its support for the establishment in the Middle East of a zone free from all weapons of mass destruction. To this end, the OIC reaffirms the need for the speedy establishment of a Nuclear-Weapons-Free-Zone in the Middle East, in accordance with relevant resolutions of the UN General Assembly and Security Council.
6. Reiterates that all states, including developed countries, should refrain from any discriminatory behavior that prevents Members of the NPT and the IAEA to peaceful use of nuclear energy;
7. Calls for the total and complete prohibition of the transfer of all nuclear-related equipment, information, material and facilities, resources or devices and the extension of assistance in the nuclear related scientific or technological fields to Israel. In this regard, expresses its serious concern over the continuing development whereby its scientists are provided access to the nuclear facilities of one Nuclear Weapon States (NWS) and believes that this development will have potentially serious negative implications on security in the region as well as the reliability of the global non-proliferation regime;

8. Requests the Secretary General to follow-up the implementation of this resolution and submit a progressive report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 29/44-POL
On
Total Elimination of Nuclear Weapons

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Noting the highest interests in nuclear disarmament on the part of international community to pursue concrete practical actions to achieve a world free from nuclear weapons,

Reiterating that the continued existence of nuclear weapons represents the most serious threat to humanity,

Convinced that nuclear disarmament and the complete elimination of nuclear weapons are essential to remove the danger of nuclear war,

Reiterating that highest priority accorded to nuclear disarmament in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly and by the international community,

Recognizing that there now exist conditions for the establishment of a world free from nuclear weapons, and stressing the need to take concrete practical steps towards achieving this goal,

Bearing in mind paragraph 50 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, the first special session devoted to disarmament, which called for the urgent negotiation of agreements for the cessation of the qualitative improvement and development of nuclear-weapon systems, and for a comprehensive and phased programme with agreed time frames, wherever feasible, for the progressive and balanced reduction of nuclear weapons, leading to their ultimate and complete elimination at the earliest possible time,

Determined to achieve a nuclear weapons convention on the prohibition of the development, testing, production, stockpiling, transfer, use and threat of use of nuclear weapons and on their destruction, and to conclude such an international convention at an early date,

Recalling the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the Legality of the Threat or Use of Nuclear Weapons, issued on 8 July 1996, and welcoming the unanimous reaffirmation by all Judges of the Court that there exists an obligation for all States to pursue in good faith and bring to conclusion negotiations leading to nuclear disarmament in all its aspects under strict and effective international control,

Reaffirming the need for urgent concrete actions by Nuclear-Weapon States to achieve the goal of a world free of nuclear weapons within a specified framework of time, and urging them to take further measures for progress on nuclear disarmament,

Recalling the United Nations Millennium Declaration, in which Heads of States and Governments resolved to strive for elimination of weapons of mass destruction, in particular nuclear Weapons,

Reaffirming that the total elimination of nuclear weapons is the only absolute guarantee against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Taking into consideration the unequivocal undertaking by the Nuclear-Weapon States in the Final Document of the 2000 and 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty, to accomplish the total elimination of their nuclear arsenals leading to nuclear disarmament,

Welcoming the convening of the high-level meeting of the General Assembly on nuclear disarmament, on 26 September 2013, and recognizing its contribution to furthering the objective of the total elimination of nuclear weapons, and encouraging the OIC Member States to actively contribute to the follow-up process of this meeting,

Reaffirming the importance of the application of the principles of transparency, verifiability and irreversibility by Nuclear-Weapon States in all measures relating to nuclear disarmament,

- 1. Acknowledges the importance of General Assembly Resolution 71/71 on follow-up to the 2013 high-level meeting of the General Assembly on nuclear disarmament and welcomes the declaration of 26 September as the International Day for the Total Elimination of Nuclear Weapons devoted to this objective and supports the call by the Assembly for the early conclusion of a comprehensive convention on nuclear weapons in the Conference on Disarmament and its decision to convene a United Nations high-level international conference on nuclear disarmament to review the progress made in this regard no later than 2018;
- 2. Recognizes that all the Nuclear-Weapon States should take effective disarmament measures to achieve the total elimination of these weapons at the earliest possible time;
- 3. Expresses deep concern about nuclear warhead modernization programmes being pursued by major possessors of nuclear weapons and plans for deployment of new type of destabilizing weapon systems by them in various regions of the world.
- 4. Underlines the Urgent need for concrete, transparent, verifiable and irreversible steps to realize the goal of a world free of nuclear weapons;
- 5. Supports the initiative of the Republic of Kazakhstan on the adoption of the Universal Declaration of a Nuclear-Weapons-free World in prospect as an important step towards the adoption of the Nuclear Weapons Convention;
- 6. Calls upon the Conference on Disarmament to establish, as soon as possible and as the highest priority an ad hoc committee on nuclear disarmament in 2015, and to commence substantive negotiations on a phased programme of nuclear disarmament leading to the total elimination of nuclear weapons by 2025.
- 7. Requests the Secretary General to follow-up the implementation of this resolution and submit a progressive report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 30/44-POL

On

The Reform of the United Nations and Expansion of UN Security Council's Membership

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling all Resolutions adopted by the Islamic Summit and Foreign Ministers Conference on the subject,

Recalling also all previous OIC resolutions, in particular Resolution 11/11-P (IS) adopted at the 11th OIC Summit, Resolutions 17/34-P, 19/35-P, 20/36-P and 26/37, adopted respectively at the 34th, 35th, 36th and 37th Sessions of the Foreign Ministers Meetings,

Bearing in mind the provisions of paragraphs No. 145 to 152 of final communiqué of the Annual Coordination Meeting of the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the OIC Member States at the UN Headquarters in New York on 25 September 2009,

Recalling also Paragraphs 64 to 75 of the Final Document of XII NAM Summit in Durban adopted on 3 September 1998, the paragraphs related to the Security Council reform in the Declaration adopted at the 32nd Session of the Summit of the Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity, held in Harare in June 1997 as well as in the Working Paper of the Arab Group adopted by the Arab Foreign Ministers in New York on 29 September 1997,

Mindful of the objectives and principles enshrined in the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation, especially the objectives of promoting Islamic solidarity among Member States and strengthening their capacity to safeguard their security, sovereignty and independence,

Reaffirming that the United Nations is an indispensable and irreplaceable global mechanism for the promotion of a shared vision of a more secure and prosperous world, and has the central role in the maintenance of international peace and security and the promotion of international cooperation,

Stressing the significant importance of multilateralism in addressing the common threats and challenges facing the common destiny of Human kind in our increasingly interconnected and globalizing world,

Expressing grave concern over the policies which have prevented the UN Security Council from performing its main duty which is to maintain global peace and security and thus undermining its credibility,

Rejecting the dominant interventionist paradigm and tendencies which constitutes a real threat to the world community and maintenance of international peace and security;

Stressing that any reform of the United Nations, including Security Council reform, should be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the UN Charter and with widest consensus,

Affirming also the importance of regular consultations with OIC Member States to advance their interests in this process,

Emphasizing the importance of transparency effectiveness, accountability, and all inclusiveness of deliberations on UN reform,

Stressing that the OIC's demand for adequate representation in the Security Council is in keeping with the significant demographic and political weight of the OIC Member States, which bears particular importance, not only from the perspective of increased efficiency, but also to ensure the representation of the main forms of civilization in the Security Council,

Reaffirming its principled position that any reform of the Security Council must ensure adequate representation of the OIC Member States in any category of membership in an expanded Security Council,

1. Takes note of the position of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for refusing its nonpermanent membership of the UN Security Council based on total realization of the inability of the United Nations and the Security Council to address Islamic issues notably the cause of Palestine and the Syrian crisis and affirms its full readiness to discuss any proposal giving the United Nations and the Security Council in particular more credibility to make its work effective and strengthen its performance in a manner that allows it to achieve its huge responsibility for international peace and security;
2. Affirms the importance of the ongoing process of UN reform and stresses that the OIC Member States have a direct and vital interest in determining the outcome of UN reform, therefore calls on all OIC Member States to actively and effectively take part in the UN Security Council reform process, in accordance with the relevant declarations, statements and resolutions issued by the OIC;
3. Notes the progress in the UN reform process including in particular the establishment of the Peace-building Commission, the Human Rights Council and UN Woman encourages the OIC Member States of these bodies to protect and promote the interests of the Islamic world in the work of these bodies;
4. Reaffirms the irreplaceable role of the United Nations and the necessity of ensuring the equal participation of all Member States in its activities, in a transparent and multilateral manner, guided by the UN Charter and founded on universally recognized principles;
5. Underlines the need, in UN reform, for evolving common perceptions and agreed approaches to address both the new and existing threats to international peace and security in the context of multilateralism;
6. Stresses that the UN Security Council reform must be comprehensive in all its aspects, must avoid piecemeal approaches and have to take into account the views of the United Nations membership, including that of the OIC Member States;

7. Emphasizes the importance of enhancing the transparency, effectiveness, accountability, representativeness and democratization of the Security Council through the improvement of its working methods and its decision-making process;
8. Supports the expansion of the Security Council's membership, in accordance with the relevant UNGA resolutions, sovereign equality of all States and adequate representation of major civilizations;
9. Reiterates the need for the full observance of the Charter of the United Nations and the unrestricted application of all the principles and the achievement of the purposes that it enshrines, and underscores the need to preserve and promote the centrality, inviolability and sanctity of the Charter's principles and purposes, in particular the principles of respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity and non-interference in the internal affairs of other States, in any drive for the UN reform;
10. Expresses its deep concern that certain recommendations and concepts, such as the responsibility to protect, new interpretation of Article 51 of UN Charter in terms of authorizing anticipatory attacks, lack of focus on nuclear disarmament as well as discriminatory restrictions on peaceful use of nuclear technology are inconsistent with UN Charter, in contradiction with the provisions of international law and against the internationally recognized principles;
11. Rejects any recommendation or initiative, in the process of UN reform, which may, in one way or another, violate the principles and purposes of the UN Charter or contradict the Member States sovereignty, political independence and the principle of non-interference;
12. Emphasizes that the process of United Nations reform should evolve on the basis of all relevant inputs, particularly that of the OIC Member States' view points and concerns;
13. Notes the continued deadlock on the reform and expansion of the Security Council and in this regard urges UN Member States to exercise flexibility and consider a compromise solution that corresponds to the interests of all UN Member States;
14. Stresses that the UNSC members should act in full transparency and accountability and should be accountable for their unlawful decisions as well as its repeated failure with regard to issues related to the Muslim Ummah;
15. Expresses its deep concern that the issues pertaining to the threats of clash, militarism and the propensity to use force have to be assessed and properly addressed and emphasizes that in addressing a new consensus on collective security the concept of dialogue, particularly the need to the paradigm of "dialogue among civilizations", already approved by the UN General Assembly, noble goal of the UN Alliance of Civilizations as the most efficient means to tackle the growing threat of clash, should be given high priority;
16. Emphasizes the necessity of representation of major civilizations in the UN Security Council and, taking into account the fact that the OIC is the largest organization after the UN, which brings together one-fifth of the world population;

17. Reaffirms its decision that any reform proposal which neglects the adequate representation of the Islamic Ummah in any category of membership in an extended Security Council will not be acceptable to the Islamic World;
18. Underlines the significant importance of achieving comprehensive reform of UN Security Council with the broadest possible agreement, through constructive negotiation between all UN Member States, based on convergence on principles and criteria for reform, as well as the need to enlarge the Council, to increase the representation of developing countries, and to improve the working methods and transparency of the Council's work, and stresses in that regard the importance of further constructive consultations between all UN Member States to agree on a common basis, the principles and framework for further progress;
19. Affirms in this regard the continuation of intergovernmental negotiations on the question of equitable representation on and increase in the membership of the Security Council and related matters in the informal plenary of the General Assembly in accordance with the relevant Resolutions and Decisions of the General Assembly;
20. Notes that the position of the OIC on the reform of the Security Council has been reiterated and conveyed by the OIC Chair to the chair of the negotiations process through his letter of 23 April 2009 and 8 February 2010, and requests the Permanent Representatives of OIC to convey the contents of this resolution to IGN Chair;
21. Reiterates that the UN Security Council should stick to its Charter-based mandate and refrain to address issues which do not fall within its function and powers, and opposes attempts by the Security Council against any State with the aim of achieving the political objectives of one or a few States, rather than in the general interest of the international community;
22. Reaffirms that both reform and expansion of the membership of the Security Council, including the question of the veto and the working methods of the Security Council, should be considered as integral parts of a common and comprehensive package, taking into account the principle of sovereign equality of States and equitable geographical distribution;
23. Further reaffirms that efforts at the restructuring of the Security Council shall not be subjected to any artificial deadlines, and that a decision on this issue should be made by consensus;
24. Reaffirms the resolve of the Member States to continue contributing actively and constructively to the consideration of the UN reform;
25. Requests the OIC open-ended Contact Group on UN Reform and Expansion of the Security Council at the United Nations Headquarters in New York to continue to closely coordinate the positions of the OIC Member States promoting the comprehensive reform of the Security Council on the above basis and to ensure equitable representation for OIC countries in any category in the enlarged Security Council in proportion to their membership of the United Nations;

26. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 31/44-POL
On
The Negative Impact of Economic and Financial Sanctions on the Full Enjoyment of Human Rights by People of the Targeted Countries

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Guided by the objectives and principles enshrined in the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation, particularly those that call for promotion of Islamic Solidarity among Member States, taking necessary measures to support international peace and security founded on justice, and respecting the sovereignty and independence of each Member State, as well as the principles and practices regarding respect for self-determination of peoples, and achieving coordination and cooperation in addressing Islamic Ummah problems of an economic, social, cultural, or humanitarian character, and in promoting respect for human rights;

Recalling the relevant OIC resolutions, expressing deep concern at the negative impacts of economic and financial sanctions on economic cooperation, the freedom of trade, the free flow of capital at the regional and international levels, the full enjoyment of human rights;

Taking note that the human cost of sanctions is a cause for genuine concern, and the deprivation suffered by civilian populations under sanctions regimes is violation of human rights including economic, social, and cultural rights;

Gravely concerned over the application of economic and financial sanctions against some OIC members, with all their negative implications for the socio-humanitarian activities and economic and social development of those States, thereby creating additional obstacles to the full enjoyment of all human rights by peoples and individuals under their jurisdiction;

Reaffirming that economic and financial sanctions are one of the major obstacles to the implementation of the Declaration on the Right to Development;

- 1- Condemns the continued imposition of economic sanctions by certain powers as tools of political or economic pressure against some Islamic countries, with a view to preventing these countries from exercising their right to decide of their own free will, their own political, economic and social systems; and calls on Member States not to respond to pressure from certain influential states to apply unilateral sanctions on Member States that are subject to those sanctions.
- 2- Also condemns the negative impact of economic sanctions concerning the implementation of the right to development.
- 3- Invites the research institutions and think tanks of OIC Member States to pay due attention to the negative impact and consequences of economic and financial sanctions and do research on the relationship between economic sanctions and human rights accountability;

- 4- Takes note of the comprehensive report including its recommendations contained in Document No. OIC/IPHRC/REP/ECO-SANC/2014/CFM-41, prepared by the OIC IPHRC on negative impacts and consequences of economic and financial sanctions on enjoyment of all human rights by people of the OIC targeted Member States;
- 5- Reaffirms that economic and financial measures should not be used as tools for political coercion and that under no circumstances should people be deprived of their own means of subsistence and development;
- 6- Requests the OIC General Secretariat to gather information statistics on the harmful consequences of economic and financial sanctions in order to submit a report thereon, and to coordinate with the Member States to convene a symposium on the economic and financial sanctions and their impact on the Member States;
- 7- Invites the OIC Groups in New York and Geneva to coordinate and raise the issue under appropriate agenda items and resolutions to highlight its negative impact on the Member States;
- 8- Welcome the holding of the International Seminar by IPHRC on “Negative Impacts of Economic and financial Sanctions on the full enjoyment of Human Rights by the People of Targeted Countries” in Tehran Islamic Republic of Iran, on 15-16 December 2014;
- 9- Requests the Secretary General to hold a meeting of experts to examine the proposal of establishing a monitoring mechanisms within the OIC General Secretariat and make concrete recommendations on the possible follow-up to the 44th Session of the CFM;
- 10- Takes note of the comprehensive outcome document of the IPHRC International Seminar on “Negative Impact of Economic and Financial Sanctions on the full enjoyment of Human Rights by the people of targeted Countries” on 15-16 December 2015; and recommends the OIC General Secretariat to consider establishing a monitoring mechanism to assess the negative impact of unilateral coercive measures on the full enjoyment of human rights by the people within OIC targeted Member States.
- 11- Encourages OIC-IPHRC to establish contacts with the UN Mechanisms on Unilateral Coercive Measures and share relevant information and reports on the subject with the General Secretariat;
- 12- Requests the OIC Groups as well as OIC Missions in New York and Geneva to present the outcome Document of the above-mentioned Seminar as a UN document, and further requests them to follow up its recommendations and suggestions within the relevant items in the context of the UN deliberation;
- 13- Requests the Secretary General to hold an expert meeting to study the proposal of establishing a monitoring mechanism within the OIC General Secretariat and make concrete recommendations on the possible follow up to the 44th CFM;

14- Requests the Secretary General to follow-up the implementation of this resolution and submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers;

15- Decides to include this question in the agenda of its next session on a priority basis.

Resolution No. 32/44-POL
On

Combating Islamophobia and Eliminating Hatred and Prejudice against Islam

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Reaffirming the valuable contribution of Islam to the human civilization, in particular by encouraging the promotion of dialogue and mutual understanding, genuine mutual respect in human exchanges and civilized discourse based on reason and logic,

Recognizing that moderation is an important value and a common approach to countering all forms of extremism, including Islamophobia towards promoting dialogue, mutual respect, understanding, tolerance, and acceptance,

Recalling the OIC objectives, in particular to endeavor to eliminate discrimination in all its forms and to preserve the dignity of all Muslims,

Recalling that States have the obligation to prohibit by law any advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence,

Recalling relevant international instruments on the elimination of various forms of discrimination, as well as all relevant resolutions adopted by the UN Human Rights Council and the UN General Assembly expressing grave concern at the instances of deliberate stereotyping of religions, their adherents and sacred persons in the media and by political parties and groups in some societies, and at the associated provocation and political exploitation,

Recalling the Final Communiqué issued by the 12th Islamic Summit Conference held in the Republic of Egypt in 2013, where emphasis was put on the strong support for His Majesty King Mohammed VI's initiative for the development of an international charter that would define appropriate standards and rules for exercising the right of freedom of expression and opinion, and the obligation to respect religious symbols and sanctities as well as spiritual values and beliefs,

Reaffirming all OIC resolutions on the subject, which stress, inter alia, the need for effectively combating defamation of Islam and incitement to religious hatred, hostility, violence and discrimination against Islam and Muslims, as well as the growing trend of Islamophobia, as well as the UN Human Rights Council's resolution 16/18 of March 2011 and subsequent resolutions sponsored by OIC and the UN General Assembly resolution 67/178,

Expressing concern over the increasing level of Islamophobia xenophobia racism religious prejudice and ethnic hatred in western societies that had long felt secure and immune to their toxic effects,

Alarmed and gravely concerned on the rise of populist politics and rightwing extremist ideologies fanning hatred and religious intolerance particularly against Muslim populations in many countries around the world,

Expressing concern over the increased level of Islamophobia in some western countries,

Recognizing the importance of interfaith and intercultural dialogue, as an effective mechanism to combat extremism and incitement to hatred based on religion,

Noting with concern that defamation of Islam could lead to social disharmony and violations of human rights and alarmed at the inaction of some parts of the world to combat this continuing trend and resulting discriminatory practices against Muslim,

Recalling the Declaration of Principles on Tolerance adopted by the Member States of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) on 16 November 1995,

Taking note of UN General Assembly Resolutions 66/3, 66/154, 66/167 and 66/208, which stress the importance of cultural diversity and address the necessity for combating intolerance, negative stereotyping, stigmatization and discrimination,

Also recalling its resolution 21-PFR/8 on the fight against Intolerance, Islamophobia and Xenophobia adopted on 22 January 2013,

Bearing in mind that, successful fight against all forms and manifestations of discrimination and intolerance requires concerted efforts of the international community as a whole,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary General on the subject,

- 1- Affirms categorically the firm determination of Member States to continue their effective cooperation and close consultations to combat Islamophobia, defamation of all divine religions, and incitement to hatred, hostility and discrimination against Muslims;
- 2- Expresses its deep concern at the instances of intolerance, discrimination and acts of violence against Islam and Muslims in many parts of the world, in addition to negative projection and stereotyping of Islam and Muslims in the international media through associating them with violence, terrorism and human rights violations;
- 3- Denounces categorically the overall rise in intolerance and discrimination against Muslim Community and Minorities in Non-OIC Member States, in particular in the West, including by enacting and oppressive application of restrictive laws and policies, religious profiling and other measures, carried out under a variety of pretexts relating to security and illegal immigration;

Resolution No. 33/44-POL
On
Combating Defamation of Religions

Commented [A1]: (adopted with the changes)

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Reaffirming the call in the OIC Charter to foster noble Islamic values concerning moderation, tolerance, respect for diversity, preservation of Islamic symbols and common heritage and to defend the universality of Islamic religion,

Reaffirming objectives of the OIC, in particular to protect and defend the true image of Islam, to combat defamation of Islam, to eliminate discrimination and encourage dialogue among civilization and religions,

Being aware of the serious nature of the defamation of all religions and the need to promote the fight against these phenomenon, inter alia, by promoting mutual understanding through interreligious, inter-cultural and inter-civilizational dialogue,

Recalling OIC resolution entitled, "Combating Defamation of Religions" adopted by successive Sessions of the Council of Foreign Ministers;

Reaffirming the commitment of all States to the implementation, in an integrated manner, of the United Nations Global Counter-terrorism Strategy, which clearly reaffirms, inter alia, that terrorism cannot and should not be associated with any religion, nationality, civilization or group, as well as the need to reinforce the commitment of the international community to promote, among other things, a culture of peace and respect for all religions, beliefs and cultures and to prevent the defamation of religions,

Recalling the objectives and principles of the OIC Charter, especially those on promoting and defending unified position on issues of common interest in the international fora,

Recognizing the valuable contribution of people of all religions or beliefs to humanity and the contribution that dialogue among religious groups can make towards an improved awareness and understanding of the common values shared by all humankind,

1. Expresses deep concern at the intensification of the overall campaign of defamation of Islam, including the ethnic and religious profiling of Muslim minorities in the aftermath of the tragic events of September 11, 2001;
2. Strongly condemns the public burning of the copies of Holy Quran in an event organized by a xenophobic and anti-Muslim group on 21st February 2017 at the Stromovka Park in Prague in presence of law enforcement agencies;
3. Deeply disturbed at the inaction by Czech Republic authorities to initiate legal proceedings against the perpetrators of this act of incitement to hatred and religious intolerance;

4. Expresses deep concern in this respect that Islam is frequently and wrongly associated with human rights violations and terrorism, and in this regard, regrets the laws or administrative measures specifically designed to control and monitor Muslim minorities, thereby stigmatizing them and legitimizing the discrimination, they experience;
5. Expresses deep concern at the negative and deliberate stereotyping and defamation of Islam and Muslims which has led to intolerance against Muslims as well as use of print, audio-visual and electronic media, including the internet, and any other means to incite acts of violence, xenophobia, and related intolerance and discrimination against Islam and Islamic religious symbols, and venerated personalities;
6. Expressing deep concern at the use of internet, information, communications technology, entertainment media such as movies, videos and digital games for disseminating ideas to ridicule, insult, or defame Islamic Religious symbols and venerated personalities, promote religious intolerance, advocate Islamophobia and incitement to violence and hatred through negative and incorrect depiction of Muslims and Islamic States and in this context, urges all member states to forcefully take up this matter with relevant partners and fora;
7. Strongly deplores all acts of psychological and physical violence and assaults, and incitement thereto, against Muslims and acts directed against their business, properties, cultural centers and places of worship, as well as targeting of holy sites, religious symbols and venerated personalities of Islam;
8. Recognizes that, in the context of the fight against terrorism, defamation of Islam and Muslims has become an aggravating factor that contributes to the denial of fundamental rights and freedoms of Muslims and leads to their economic and social exclusion;
9. Emphasizes that, as stipulated in international human rights, law, including articles 19 and 29 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and articles 19 and 20 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, everyone has the right to hold opinions without interference and the right to freedom of expression, the exercise of which carries with it special duties and responsibilities and may therefore be subject to limitations only as provided for by law and are necessary for respect of the rights or reputations of others, protection of national security or of public order, public health or morals and general welfare;
10. Reaffirms that general comment No. 15 of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, in which the Committee stipulated that the prohibition of the dissemination of all ideas based upon racial superiority or hatred is compatible with freedom of opinion and expression, is equally applicable to the question of incitement to religious hatred;
11. Welcomes the establishment of the King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz International Center for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue (KAICID) in Vienna aimed at enhancing and supporting efforts at both regional and international levels, towards reducing confrontation, promoting tolerance and interfaith dialogue and harmony and urges OIC Member States to participate effectively in the activities and programmes of the Center. It also welcomed the efforts of the Congress of Leaders of World and Traditional Religions which aim to foster a culture of tolerance and mutual respect, as opposed the ideology of hatred and extremism.

12. Commends the efforts of His Majesty King Abdullah II bin Al-Hussein towards promoting mutual understanding and interfaith harmony; and expresses its appreciation of the various initiatives of His Majesty aimed at building communication bridges and eliminating stereotypes among the followers of different religions, including the “World Interfaith Harmony Week” initiative endorsed by the UN General Assembly on 20 October 2010 by virtue of resolution No. A/RES/65/5, which declares the first week of February of every year as a World Interfaith Harmony Week.
13. Takes note of the adoption by consensus of Resolution 16/18 on “Combating Intolerance Negative Stereotyping and Stigmatization of, and Discrimination, Incitement of Violence, and Violence Against Persons Based on Religion or Belief adopted by consensus at the 16th Session of the Human Rights Council and adoption of Corresponding Resolution 67/178 in the 67th Session of UN General Assembly;
14. Appreciates the efforts and the relevant activities of the Secretary General and the work of the OIC Groups in the United Nations particularly the OIC Working Group on Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs in Geneva for their valuable contribution to protect and promote the common interests of the OIC Member States and requests them to continue their activities in line with this resolution;
15. Welcomes the Secretary’s General’s proposals contained in the Human Rights Council resolution 16/18, to foster a domestic environment of religious tolerance, peace and respect - with particular reference to adopting measures to criminalize incitement to imminent violence based on religion or belief - and the steps taken for implementation of these proposals;
16. Supports the Istanbul Process which aims to ensure the implementation of the UN Human Rights Council Resolution 16/18 and which has, so far, proved to be successful in developing common understanding on the elimination of intolerance based on religion.
17. Decides to remain seized of the matter as a top priority item on the agenda of all OIC Summits and Council of Foreign Ministers;
18. Requests the Secretary General to report on the implementation of this resolution to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Resolution No. 41/44-POL
On
Countering Terrorism and Extremism

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling the Code of Conduct for Combating International Terrorism adopted by the Organization of Islamic Cooperation in 1994, and the OIC Convention on Combating Terrorism adopted by the 26th Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (Session of Peace and Partnership for Development) held in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, from 28 June to 1 July 1999;

Referring to the OIC Ten-Year Programme of Action adopted by the Third Extraordinary Islamic Summit Conference held in Makkah Al Mukarramah on 7-8 December 2005, reaffirming condemnation of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations and rejecting any justification or excuse for terrorism;

Pursuant to the Final Communiqué of the Open-ended Extraordinary Meeting of the OIC Executive Committee at the ministerial level held in Jeddah on 15 February 2015;

Recalling the principles and objectives of the United Nations Charter aimed at maintaining Peace & Security and taking effective collective measures to that end;

Reaffirming its strong position against any attempts to confuse just and legitimate struggle for self-determination and liberation from foreign occupation with terrorism;

Guided by the objectives and principles of the United Nations on preventing and combating terrorism including various relevant UNGA and UNSC resolutions, particularly resolutions 2170, 2178 and 2199 as well as the UN Counter-Terrorism Framework, including the UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and the obligations under the International Law;

Concerned about the threat posed by terrorist groups to the stability, security and territorial integrity of Member States;

Expressing concern over violation of human rights while countering terrorism and broader impact of armed drone attacks on individuals, psychological well-being of children, families, and communities, including interruption of education of children, undermining of religious and cultural practices and the reluctance to assist the victims of armed drone attacks for fear of being caught in secondary strikes.

Reaffirming the need for addressing the problem of violent extremism and recalling in this regard, the General Assembly Resolution 53/243 containing a Declaration and Plan of action to promote a Culture of peace, adopted by consensus;

1. Reiterates its principled position against terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, committed by whomsoever and wherever; and reaffirms its unequivocal rejection of all attempts to associate any country, race, religion, culture or nationality with terrorism.
2. Underscores the need for the OIC to play an effective role in international efforts to combat all aspects of terrorism, in the framework of constructive cooperation with States and international and regional organizations with influence, such as to serve the interests of OIC Member States and their peoples in eradicating terrorism and countering its risks.
3. Condemns the heinous terrorist crimes perpetrated against some Member States, particularly those which have recently occurred in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, the Arab Republic of Egypt, Afghanistan, Libya, Nigeria, Tunisia, Pakistan, Iraq, Mali, Somalia and Lebanon, Niger, Saudi Arabia, Cameroon, Burkina Faso, Bahrain, Bangladesh, Kuwait, Yemen and Cote d'Ivoire and; reaffirms full solidarity with the families of the victims and the wounded; and commends the efforts exerted by Member States to combat terrorism consistent with the OIC Charter and relevant Convention and other relevant international agreements and mechanisms, particularly the UN Charter.
4. Condemns the heinous terrorist acts in all parts of the world and reaffirms the OIC's principle and firm position which denounces terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, and that terrorism has no religion, nationality, or race; and that the perpetrators and those behind such acts are an affront to humanity and all moral and human values.
5. Recognizes that terrorism cannot not be tackled by security or military means alone, and underlines the need to promote initiatives aimed at achieving peace through national reconciliation with the groups and individuals who shun violence and extremist ideas, give up terrorist acts and activities for good and recognize Islam's true values and the State's constitutional legitimacy, and to attach due attention to devising concrete and elaborate practical plans for addressing the various dimensions and root causes of terrorism as set out in the Final Communiqué of the Extraordinary Open-ended Meeting of the OIC Executive Committee held in Jeddah on 15 February 2015.
6. The Meeting recognized that terrorism cannot be tackled by security or military means alone, and that due attention and concrete plans of action must address the following aspects and dimensions of the phenomenon of terrorism:
 - a) The political and socio-economic contexts that bring forth conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism and violent extremism, such as continued economic deprivation, exclusion, alienation, separation and marginalization of people, and the forced dismantling of political, legal, security and socio-cultural institutions.
 - b) The deep impact and legacy of historical injustices done to colonized peoples or those under occupation, their sufferings and the forced destruction of their national institutions, culture and identity, and the denial of their rights to self-determination.

c) The need to counter all types of radical extremist discourse in order to delegitimize the violent and manipulative acts committed in the name of religion, ideology or claims of cultural superiority.

d) The need to revisit the OIC relevant documents in regard to terrorism, including the Code of Conduct on Combating Terrorism, the OIC Convention on Combating International Terrorism and the numerous resolutions issued by the different organs of the OIC in order to effectively address the new trends of terrorism and extremism.

e) Take action at the international level with a view to holding an international conference on combating terrorism which would come up with a consensual international definition of terrorism.

f) The underlying causes of sectarian violence, the attempts to politicize the sectarian differences, the emphasis on sects as the essence of identity, and the waging of campaigns to convert Muslims from one sect to the other.

g) The potential of external actors penetrating terrorist and extremist groups for the purpose of serving their own political agenda, and the threat of non-Arab and non-Muslim foreign fighters.

h) The role of the media and the advent of cyber terrorism through the utilization of new information and communication technologies by terrorist groups for the purpose of recruitment and incitement to terrorism.

7. Invites the Secretary General, in cooperation with Member States, to develop a new approach to address the root causes of the global phenomenon of terrorism, violence and extremism, and the means to address them at the political, economic, social and intellectual levels, and heeds the complexity of the phenomenon, particularly the close interrelations between terrorist organizations in terms of the exchange of arms, fighters, financing and field expertise, as well as the intellectual and ideological framework they share.
8. Welcomes the establishment of the 'General Secretariat of Iftaa Institutions in the World', as an international specialized body based in Dar Al-Iftaa Al-Masriya, with a view to ensuring coordination among Iftaa institutions and bodies in the the world, to address differences of opinion on Iftaas on combating terrorism and to encouraging moderation.
9. Underscores the need to activate the OIC Convention on Combating Terrorism adopted in 1999 and welcomes the holding of the 1st Meeting of the Intergovernmental Group of Legal Experts to revisit the OIC Convention on Combating International Terrorism held on 9-10 May 2016 in Jeddah, which considered the pre-draft "Additional Protocol" to the OIC Convention on combating International Terrorism, addressing new trends and other areas for strengthening cooperation among the Member States.
10. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism, which refers, inter alia, to the use of remotely piloted aircraft, and notes the recommendations, including on the urgent and imperative need to seek agreement among Member States on legal questions pertaining to remotely piloted aircraft operations. And urges Member States to ensure that any measures taken or means employed to counter-terrorism, including the use of remotely piloted aircraft, comply with their obligations under international law, including the Charter of the United Nations, human rights law and international humanitarian law rules of distinction, proportionality and precaution.

11. Requests the Secretary General to contribute to the ongoing debate on countering terrorism, cross-border crime, and modalities to address extremist and sectarian discourse by convening conferences, symposia and workshops in cooperation with OIC Member States and its various institutions and partners, with the participation of political, religious and traditional leaders, psychologists and sociologists, etc. and to hold conferences to review educational curricula in this regard. It welcomes the outcome of High level Dialogue “Religions for Peace” held on 06 June 2016 in the framework of the UN General Assembly in New York. It also welcomes the statement of the participants of the International Conference “Religions against Terrorism” held on 31 May 2016 in Astana.
12. Requests the Secretary General to establish counter-terrorism partnerships with international and regional organizations and relevant government centers; calls for the activation of the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Center (UNCTC) to coordinate global counter-terrorism efforts; and commends Saudi Arabia for its $100 mn contribution to support the activities of the Center which was established at the initiative of the late King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz.
13. Calls on the Secretary General to work with Member States in order to take necessary and appropriate measures to prohibit incitement to all forms of terrorism, violence and extremism, especially through the media and cyberspace, including the consideration of setting up a mechanism to report the cases and incidents of incitement against Member States in order to address them firmly, and to dry up the sources of terrorism, eliminate its roots, refrain from providing direct or indirect support to entities and persons involved in terrorism and violent extremism, and abstain from incubating, providing safe haven to, financing, paying ransom to them or providing them with any form of assistance whatsoever and Welcomes the efforts taken by the Secretary General in establishing the OIC Messaging Center to debunk and counter the terrorists narrative.
14. Lauds the efforts of the United Arab Emirates in countering terrorism, violence and extremism, and promoting universal values and the culture of tolerance, coexistence and respect for cultural and religious diversity, through the establishment of specialized centers such as SAWAB Center, based in the UAE, which aims at mobilizing social media to counter the radical ideology of terrorist organisations; the UAE also hosts Hedayah Center which contributes to the elimination of discrimination and violent extremism, training, dialogue, cooperation and research in this field. This would open new prospects for constructive cooperation with the OIC, in particular with its Messaging and Dialogue Center, and for interaction with OIC initiatives on counter-terrorism and violent extremism to counter such rhetoric and terrorist practices in physical reality and in cyberspace.

15. Affirms that the struggle against terrorism, separatism and extremism in all their manifestations, illicit drug production and trafficking, illegal smuggling of arms, ammunition and explosives, the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and their means to delivery will remain among priorities of cooperation within the framework of the OIC Member States stand for further close cooperation in the fight against terrorism, separatism and extremism, spread of extremist ideology, primarily among youth, as well as for the prevention of ethnic , racial, religious intolerance and xenophobia.
16. Reaffirms the need for Member States to take necessary measures to prevent the abuse of the work of NGOs by terrorists and terrorist entities.
17. Calls on the OIC General Secretariat upon consultation with Member States, to build bridges with Muslim communities outside OIC Member States, , in order to underline a religious discourse that enjoins Islam's values of moderation, justice, and equality.
18. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the implementation of the present resolution and report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Qatari Abductees in Iraq

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Affirming the principles and objectives of the OIC Charter calling for the promotion of solidarity and brotherhood among Member States,

Recalling the Final Communiqué issued by 13th session of the Islamic Summit Conference held in Istanbul, Republic of Turkey from 3 – 8 Rajab 1447H (10 – 15 April 2016), in particular paragraph (20) on Qatari abductees in the Republic of Iraq,

Recalling also the ministerial communiqué issued by the Extraordinary meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers held in Jeddah on 11 Rabiul Thani 1447H (21 January 2016) on the Qatari abductees in the Republic of Iraq, which condemned the abduction and described it as an act of terrorism, and calling on the Government of the Republic of Iraq to assume its responsibility and stand in solidarity with the Government of the State of Qatar in all the steps it is taking in this regard,

1. Condemns and denounces again the abduction of innocent Qatari citizens who entered the Iraqi territory legitimately and legally with official entry visas issued by Iraq's Embassy in Doha, based on the approval of the Iraqi Ministry of Interior, and who were abducted in territories that fall under the sovereignty and security control of the Iraqi government;
2. Describes this act as a despicable terrorist one which contravenes the provisions of the pristine Islamic religion, constitutes a flagrant violation of international law and relevant resolutions of the Security Council, in particular resolution 2133 (2014), and undermines the bonds of relationships among Islamic states;
3. Requests the Iraqi government to assume its international legal responsibility and take all decisive and immediate measures to ensure the safety of the abductees, free them, and bring the perpetrators of this wanton terrorist act to justice;
4. Expresses full solidarity with the Government of the State of Qatar in all the measures it takes in this regard and hopes that the contacts being made with the Government of the Republic of Iraq would result in the release of the abductees and their return to their country;
5. Requests the Secretary General again to follow up on the implementation of this resolution and to submit a report thereon to the 45th Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Condemnation of the Justice against Sponsors of Terrorism Act

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Recalling the Charter of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation, the Charter of the United Nations and all international instruments emphasizing the principle of sovereignty and immunity of states,

Recalling the statement released by the General Secretariat of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation and those released by international and regional organizations and several states condemning the passing of the American JUSTICE AGAINST SPONSORS OF TERRORISM ACT (JASTA) as contradictory to the rules and principles of the United Nations Charter and a violation of the established rules of relations between states of many centuries, which does not allow, under any pretext, the imposition of the domestic law of a state on other states,

Recalling criticisms issued by the American government itself against the JUSTICE AGAINST SPONSORS OF TERRORISM ACT which it considered a mistake given its negative impacts on the principle of sovereign immunity of states,

1. Stresses the commitment and adherence of Member States to the principle of sovereignty and immunity of states, in accordance with the charters of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation and the United Nations, which is a principle established in the laws of international relations for many years;
2. Strongly condemns the United States JUSTICE AGAINST SPONSORS OF TERRORISM ACT, which violates the principle of sovereignty and immunity of states, negatively impacts the patterns of relations between states, and causes the spread of chaos and confusion in the world;
3. Requests the Government of the United States of America to repeal this law in the interest of international security and peace;
4. Invites the Security Council and the United Nations General Assembly to deploy earnest efforts to repeal this law;
5. Affirms the commitment of OIC Member States to combating and eradicating terrorism, and emphasizes the importance of international cooperation in fighting terrorism, in accordance with relevant resolutions of the United Nations;
6. Requests the OIC Secretary General to communicate this resolution to the Secretary General of the United Nations as well as regional and international organizations and to submit a report thereon to the next session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Solidarity with the Victims of the Khojaly Massacre of 1992

The Forty Fourth Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers, (Session of Youth, Peace and Development in a World of Solidarity), held in Abidjan, Republic of Côte d'Ivoire, from 16 to 17 Shawwal 1438H (10-11 July 2017),

Proceeding from the principles and objectives enshrined in the Charter of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC);

Reaffirming the resolutions on the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan adopted by ordinary and extraordinary sessions of the Islamic Summit and the OIC Council of Foreign Ministers,

Recalling the United Nations Security Council resolutions 822 (1993), 853 (1993), 874 (1993) and 884 (1993), which condemn the seizure of the territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan, reaffirm the support for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the inviolability of international borders and the inadmissibility of the use of force for the acquisition of territory, and demand the immediate, complete and unconditional withdrawal of the armed forces of the Republic of Armenia from the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Recalling also condemnation by the United Nations Security Council in its aforementioned resolutions of attacks on civilians and bombardments of the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan, resulted in human sufferings and the displacement of large numbers of civilians in the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Recalling further the United Nations General Assembly resolutions 48/114 of 20 December 1993, entitled "Emergency international assistance to refugees and displaced persons in Azerbaijan", and 60/285 of 7 September 2006 and 62/243 of 14 March 2008, both entitled "The situation in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan",

Emphasizing that the United Nations General Assembly in its resolution 62/243 reaffirmed in particular the continued respect and support for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan within its internationally recognized borders;

Reiterating the long-standing support of the OIC for the territorial integrity, political independence and sovereignty of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and for the resolution of the conflict within the territorial integrity and internationally recognized borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Recalling the principles and norms of international humanitarian law, in particular the Hague Convention respecting the Laws and Customs of War on Land of 18 October 1907 and the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 12 August 1949;

Recalling also the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the relevant human rights instruments, including the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of

Genocide of 1948, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination of 1965, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights of 1966, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights of 1966, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women of 1979, the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment of 1984, and the Convention on the Rights of the Child of 1989;

Recalling further the importance of the principles and provisions of the Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict of 1954 and its Protocols of 1954 and 1999;

Expressing serious concern over the continuing aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan and the unlawful occupation of its territories, in gross violation of the norms and principles of international law and the relevant resolutions of the United Nations Security Council and General Assembly, the OIC and other international organizations;

Expressing serious concern over the unlawful and provocative policies and practices of the Republic of Armenia in the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan, including actions taken with a view of changing unilaterally the physical, demographic, economic, social and cultural character, as well as the institutional structure and status of those territories;

Condemning desecrations of and denial of free access to the Muslim holy places in the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Gravely concerned by the glorification of terrorists and war criminals in Armenia, including by erecting monuments and memorials to war criminals, as well as enabling such individuals to hold high public offices;

Also gravely concerned by the impunity for serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law, including indiscriminate attacks, the killing of civilians, ethnic cleansing, the taking and holding of hostages, the mistreatment of prisoners of war and hostages, and the extensive destruction of inhabited areas and the public and private property, committed by the Republic of Armenia during the conflict, which has provided a fertile ground for further violations;

Emphasizing the need to ensure that all those responsible for serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law committed during the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan are held to account through appropriate criminal justice mechanisms, as well as to ensure the provision of effective remedy and reparation to the victims of such violations, and stressing the importance of pursuing practical steps in that regard at the national and international levels;

Expressing confidence that ending impunity for serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law committed during the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan will contribute to ensuring justice, deterring further violations, protecting civilians and promoting peace;

Welcoming the resolutions and decisions adopted by a number of States and international organizations, which condemn the continuing unlawful military occupation of the territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan and serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law amounting to crimes under international law committed by armed forces of the Republic of Armenia, such as war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide;

Underscoring the necessity of increased pressure on Armenia by political, diplomatic, legal and economic means in order to bring the aggressor in compliance with the demands and decisions of the United Nations, the OIC and other international organizations;

Welcoming in this regard the establishment of the OIC Contact Group on the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Having determined to operationalize the relevant provisions of the previous ordinary and extraordinary sessions of the Islamic Summit and the OIC Council of Foreign Ministers, most notably, Article 117 of the Cairo Communiqué;

1. Strongly condemns the mass atrocities against the Azerbaijani civilians and militaries committed by the armed forces of the Republic of Armenia in the town of Khojaly, Republic of Azerbaijan, in February 1992, and other occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan during the conflict, including the indiscriminate attack, the mass killing of civilians, the mistreatment of prisoners of war and hostages, as war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide;
2. Calls upon Member States to exert due efforts for recognition of the crimes perpetrated in the town of Khojaly and other occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan during the conflict as war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide at the national and international levels;
3. Commends the “Justice for Khojaly” international civil awareness campaign initiated in the framework of the “OIC Memorial Day Program” and aimed at disseminating of historical truth on the massacre of the Azerbaijanis committed by the armed forces of the Republic of Armenia in the town of Khojaly in February 1992;
4. Invites the Member States to continue supporting the campaign and actively participate in its activities;
5. Requests the Secretary General to follow-up the implementation of the present resolution and report thereon to the next Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers
